For some, this year at Roosevelt has been endured. For others, it has been a time for getting involved. For all of us, it has been an opportunity to learn and exchange ideas and grow within ourselves if we sought to do so.

Some came openly, ready to give and receive. Some came closed to others and themselves. Some came diligently, others came occasionally.

But when we are all gathered, there is Roosevelt. We are scholars and athletes. We are social groups and community projects. We are artists, singers, actors, and writers. We are Roosevelt.

Next year, when a part of Roosevelt has gone and others have come to be part of Roosevelt, we will have changed. Just as Roosevelt has changed every year.

Therefore, neither we, nor anyone else may ever pass this way again. Because every class must make its own way. Every class has its own obstacles to overcome.

We had the resignation of the vice-president of the United States, and talk of impeaching the president. We faced the energy crisis and Watergate.

We added a juke box to the Student Center and streakers became the talk of the school.

We felt inflation as the yearbook was cut by eight pages and the marching band traveled to only home games.

We experienced the energy crisis which made sweaters practical and slacks a necessity. We formed car pools and canceled our Christmas sports tournaments.

There was much before us, and never again may the same obstacles face Roosevelt. Never again may the same path be tread.

We may never pass this way again.

Opportunity.

It's there for those of us who want to reach out and take it. More now than ever before.

With more clubs and interest groups we have an opportunity to become involved with others who share our interest.

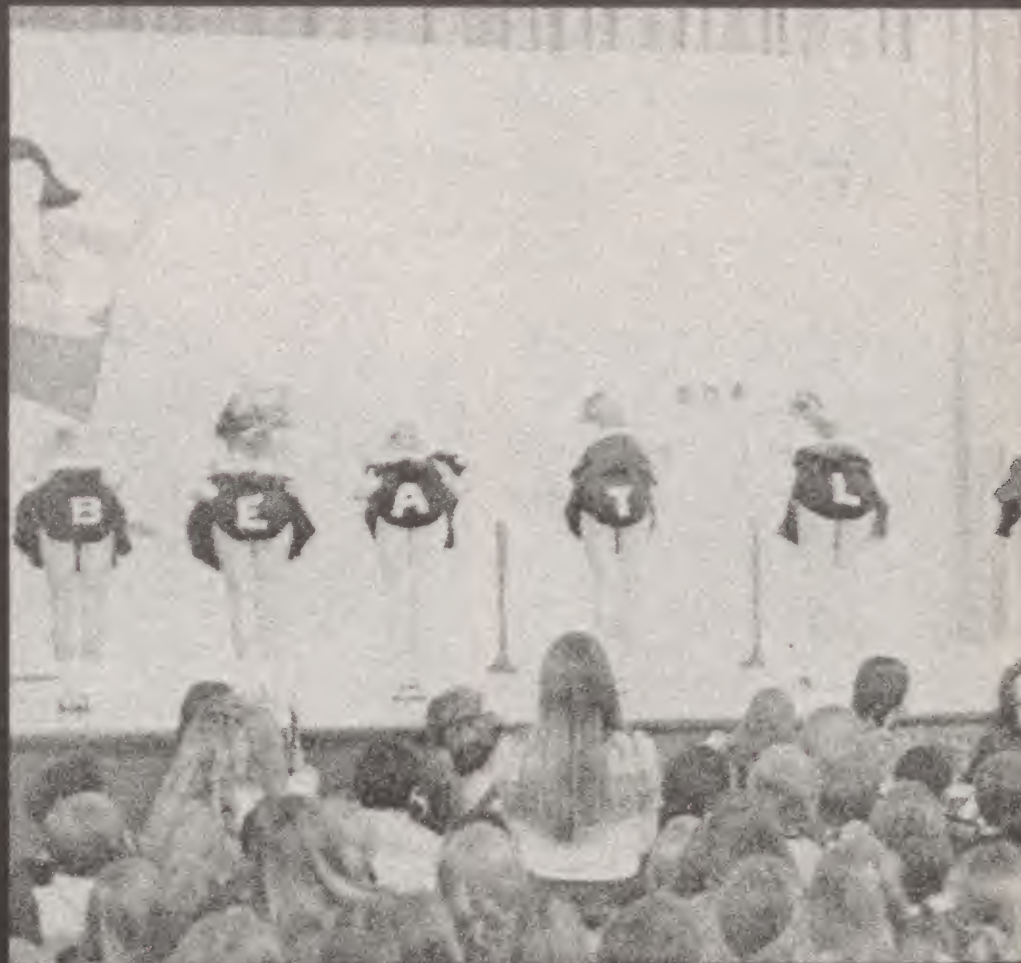

We have the opportunity to touch others: To teach them to learn from them and to work with them. To help someone with a special problem or a friend who can't figure out a math problem.

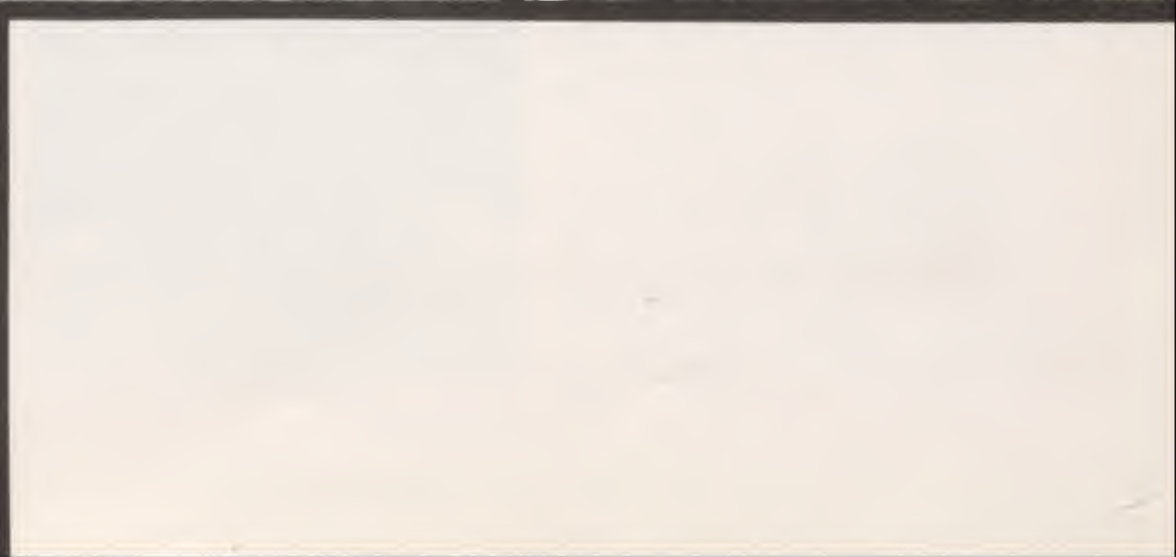

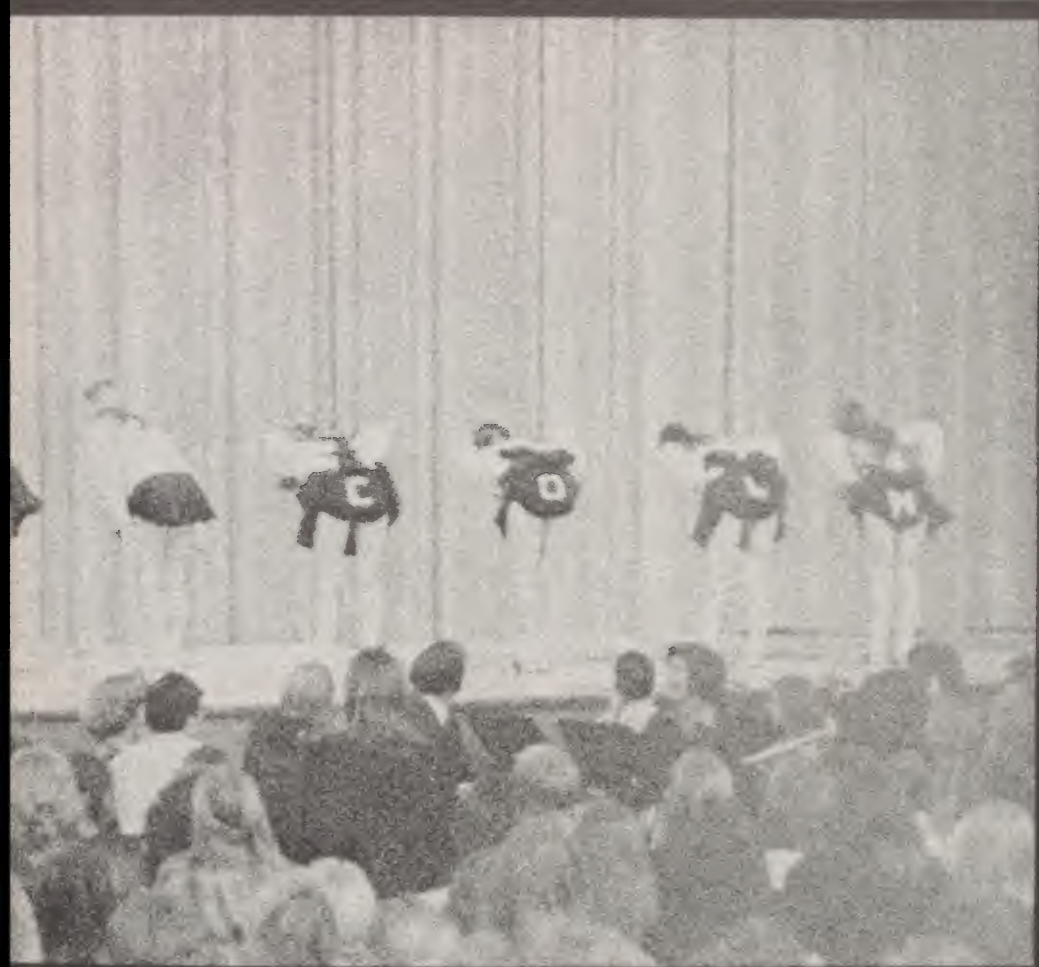

We have the opportunity to effect our future. By the clubs we choose to join—Student Council, International Club, Girls' Club—we can change what "is" to something better.

Most important, we have an opportunity to care; we can laugh or cry or love—to feel.

To care about a football game or Homecoming Queen or an election or the people around us.

We have the opportunity.
It's there.

"Rock Around The Clock" is homecoming theme

Nostalgia. The recent trend back toward the days of butch wax, rock n' roll, and scoopin' the loop was given an extra shove Saturday, September 29. That was the night of Roosevelt's fifty-first homecoming festivities.

Co-ordinators of the dance, Valerie Russell and Lori Gruber, chose a theme typical of this return to beach movies, hot rods, and when playing hookie meant you were going fishing; "Rock Around The Clock."

Balloons filled Roosevelt's auditorium Friday during the Girls Club traditional homecoming assembly as Chris DeMarce was crowned the fifty-first homecoming queen by co-captains of the football team, Craig Schoeder and Mark Sloan.

The homecoming football game scheduled to be played on Friday night against the Tech High Engineers had to be rescheduled to Saturday night because of rain. This was the first time in Roosevelt's history that its homecoming game had to be postponed.

Despite the rain and lack of traditional homecoming ceremonies, the Riders scored a 28-8 victory over Tech.

Roosevelt student council president, Cath Carpenter and All-City Student Council president, Joel From presented Chris and her attendants to the crowd.

The attendants in the homecoming court were seniors Debbie Halderman, Laurie Jones, Coby Kuhn, and Julie Williams. Underclass attendants were junior Jolene Utterback, and sophomore Lisa Carey.

After the game many students found themselves hoppin' in the boys gym to the music of "Duane Dick, and the Jive Five."

Semi-formal attire was in order. However, Valerie and Lori informed the students that they could dress in the style of the '50's. Workers and chaperones were dressed in '50's styles as was the band.

All in all, maybe that by gone era of rock n' roll is not that far removed from us today.

Fall president, Cath Carpenter.

Fall council concentrates on world problems.

The 1973 Fall Student Council started the year off with a retreat, September 22 and 23, at the YMCA camp in Boone.

"The retreat was a great success," said president Cath Carpenter. "This was the first time a retreat was open to all student council members. Altogether we had thirty sophomores, juniors, and seniors."

Mixing fun and serious work, the group dedicated themselves to getting more students involved in council and in reaching more by offering a variety of activities and student services.

The social committee, headed by Lori Gruber and Val Russell, overcame the elements and a rainy game to have one of the best Homecoming celebrations ever. "Duane, Dick and the Jive Five" provided appropriate 1950's music for the dance. The social committee also pulled off a successful Sophomore Mixer.

A coin-operated juke box in the student center brought income for council projects, as well as popular music.

Not so successful was the morning coffee project, which died from a lack of both coffee drinkers and coffee makers.

The human relations committee had a special program on impeachment pros and cons, with guest speakers Gil Cranberg and Charles Dick, local attorneys.

Twenty Roosevelt students marched in the October 7 Hunger Hike and for their efforts big-hearted sponsors gave over $650.

Each homeroom was visited twice during the week of November 8 for the United Way campaign. The total collected was $75.

The community service committee continued the Van Meter school paper. They produced one issue per month giving highlights of activities at the school.

The energy crisis committee was formed this year in efforts to establish carpools for Roosevelt students and teachers. The committee realized carpools could be personally less convenient than driving unfilled cars to school but hoped that students and teachers would realize the seriousness of the crisis and take positive actions.

To help solve the campus litter problem, Cath Carpenter, Sam Kreamer, Tracy Fatland, and Brook Wennerstrum debated a proposal to the City Council to place and maintain some trash cans on Chamberlain. They were given permission to put two cans on Chamberlain between 42nd Street and Polk Boulevard. The city will maintain them.

Cath Carpenter and Mike Bloomberg listen as Denise Gowdey reads the minutes.

Cathy Carpenter proudly listens to the new juke box she originated.

Seniors Pete Peterson, Laurie Scott, Jim VanVerth, and Sandy Miller join a car pool in efforts to conserve energy.

Doctor Wells captures Detective Anderson — or is it the Bat?

"The Bat" is mysterious melodrama

The revealing of the mysterious murderer is the suspenseful climax of "The Bat," presented by Roosevelt's Drama Department November 9 and 10.

"The Bat" is centered around the mystic happenings in an old house recently rented by an elderly lady, Miss Cornelia Van Gorder. Along with her nervous maid, Lizzie, Miss Cornelia unscrambles the mystery with the help of a bogus Detective Anderson.

Aiding the plot is the search for a large sum of money, embezzled from a bank, which is expected to be hidden in the house, owned by Flemings. Richard Fleming, nephew of the supposedly deceased bank president is killed while he tries to leave the house with the blueprints.

The discovery of an unknown man who apparently suffers from amnesia, and the visual appearance of "The Bat" for the first time quickly resolve the conflict. And "The Bat's" true identity is finally disclosed.

Mr. Anderson, director of the play commented, "'The Bat' is a nice type of play to do for a change in a high school situation. It combines the old-fashioned melodrama with the modern who-dun-it of television, and should not be allowed to become extinct."

The Ouija Board reveals startling facts to Miss Cornelia and her maid, Lizzie.

There were several hard working crews involved with the production of "The Bat," including set, lighting make-up, publicity, and costumes. About forty or fifty Roosevelt students contributed their time.

Outing Club and BSU starting to grow

Row 1: Kathie Miller, Denise Foster, Karen Ericson, Sandy Miller, Carol Moore, Cath Carpenter, Pam Burress, Curt Clemenson; Row 2: Ruth Burch, Vince Morinello, Valerie East, Sara Kelley, Kathy Ericson, Liz McCormick, Scott Chapman, Dave Hindal, Anne Frahm, Josh Engman, Vincent Copple.

The highlight of the Outing Club's first year was an overnight canoe trip in mid-spring.

Leaving on a Friday night, and returning late Saturday, the group was sponsored and chaperoned by Mr. Doug Johnson, a social science teacher at Roosevelt.

The Outing Club was formed out of the old Bike Club.

Plans are in the making for next years 'outings.'

BSU

The Roosevelt BSU (Black Student Union) is a relatively new group at Roosevelt.

Sponsored by Mrs. Fant the group was formed in recent years to help Black students know their heritage and themselves in a basically white school.

Julie Williams and Lori Gruber head newspaper staff

Roundup staff: Laurie Scott, Debbie Halderman, Lori Gruber, Jim Van Verth, Julie Williams, Peggy Garner, and Sandy Miller.

The 1973 fall Roundup staff, under the direction of its editor Julie Williams, worked daily to put out a biweekly paper.

Staff members included: Julie Williams, editor; Lori Gruber, managing editor; Laurie Scott, business manager; Peggy Gardner, advertising manager with assistant Ted Brightman; and Janet Arp, circulation manager.

Page editors were Emily Dickson with assistant Max Peterson for page one; Sandy Miller was in charge of page two; Pete Peterson, Jim Van Verth, and Sam Nuzam put together page three; and Debbie Halderman and John Hand worked on page four.

The subscription for the newspaper went up to $2.50 this year. The price increase was due to the newsprint shortage.

Sandy Miller takes time out to smile during her job on the Roundup staff.

Julie Williams rests after working hard on the paper.

Odin raises spirit

Who is Odin? What does he do? It started eight years ago when the Roosevelt students decided they needed another force behind them other than "Old Teddy Roosevelt." Thus at a pep assembly before a Dowling game of yesteryear, Odin was unveiled.

Odin was originally the god of storm among the Southern Germanic people, and rose to a position of great leadership in the Norse pantheon.

George Peak, a senior was chosen the 1973 Odin by the football cheerleaders.

"I really enjoy being Odin. It's an experience because it gives me a chance to participate without being a jock, a Riderette, or in the band," says George.

Commenting on Odin's function in relationship to school spirit Katy Joyce, co-captain of the football cheerleaders said, "I think that he should try to promote spirit for the crowd, and just help us out. He's really our mascot."

She continued "George does a great job because he seems to enjoy what he's doing and he spreads his overall enthusiasm."

George Peak, the 1973-74 Odin, courageously defends Roosevelt.

Mark Macpherson, Paula Vance, and Jack Tow were the grand prize winners of this years Krazy Kake Kontests.

Marching Band under new direction

Mr. Ron Hewus came to Roosevelt at the beginning of the '73-'74 school year to direct instrumental music. His responsibilities consist of directing the bands and orchestra. One of the bands Mr. Hewus directs is the 72 piece marching band. The marching band put on pre-game and half-time shows at football games during the '73 football season.

The Rider band, lead by drum major Stan Bench, president Mark LaFollette, and student director Joe Kingkade, marched only at home games this fall season. Lack of money allotted to the band's transportation was the reason the band could not march at all the games.

During the off-football season, the marching band is converted into the concert band. This band is "99% the same as the marching band" stated Mr. Hewus. The concert band took part in the state contest competition.

Drum Major Stan Bench

Student Director Joe Kingkade

Directing a marching band involves a lot of paper—as Mr. Hewus finds out.

Riderettes Row 1: Joan Libbey, Mary Ankrum, Drinda Stanger, Paula Vance, Debbie Halderman, Carol Hardie, Joni Ibbotson, Karen Davidson, Sandy Miller. Row 2: Kathy Wheeler, Linda Hartzer, Mindy Bordt, Jeanette Lutz, Myra Rodigas, Cindy Burgdorf, Sue Hanrahan, Billie Sawdey, Sue Kelso, Joyce Nasset. Row 3: Tammy Postal, Shirlee Booth, Kathy Hetzer, Darlene Neff, Jule Lutz, Kathy Stuart, Mary McBride, Sue Huffman, Debbie Hestbech, Sherry Kalny, Jody Weiss, Paula Berger, Ann Schilling, Sheila Akey.

The band has striven to make many advances this year. With much help from Mrs. Scott, president of the Band Booster Club, quite a few fund raising activities were carried out.

Many band members, Riderettes, Flaggies, and parents worked to raise money for two specific goals. The goals were to supply next year's band with new uniforms and the possibility of a trip in the spring of '73.

The new uniforms are due to arrive in the fall of '74. They are to replace the worn and tattered uniforms which were worn during the 1973-'74 season and many years previous. The 80-some new uniforms are to consist of a complete concert band uniform, including overlay.

A band trip, including Flaggies and Riderettes, as well as band members was planned by Mr. Hewus and Mrs. Scott after much consideration. The band went to Rapid City, South Dakota on May 31-June 2.

Highlights of the trip included a chance to go as a 114 piece unit to compete against bands from all over the U.S., have clinics with a big, famous band, and have fun along the way.

For the first time in twenty years, the Riderettes had uniforms which were the same in structure and design. The thanks for the new Riderette uniforms is owed to Mrs. Esther Miller. Mrs. Miller, mother of senior Riderette, Sandy Miller, gave up much of her summer time to make the 36 cow-girl style uniforms.

The Riderettes are lead by Debbie Halderman, Head Riderette; Marcia Roby, Vice-President; Carol Hardie, Secretary; and Paula Vance, Treasurer.

Riderettes and Flag Cadets hold clinics and try-outs in mid-spring. It is at this time new Flaggies and Riderettes (called Pennants and Farmerettes, respectively) are chosen for the next year.

The 8 Flag Cadets are headed by Marty Miller, Head Captain and Barb Allen, Assistant Captain. A requirement of the Flaggies is that they have to be members of the band before they may try out. After the marching season, they become instrumentalists, once again.

Row 1: Laurie Scott, Jocelyn Hart, Ann Gibbons, Wendy Nelson. Row 2: Barb Allen, Mel Kacena, Marty Miller, Kathy Burch, Jayne Stevenson.

Coby Kuhn and Jane Sullivan head Girls' Club

Girls' Club started out the '73-'74 school year right away by getting the big and little sisters together so any new Roosevelt girls will feel more comfortable with the building and other students.

Krazy Kake Kontest was one of the ways Girls' Club got into the Homecoming festivities. Other ways included selling pins, ribbons, and chocolate bars.

Throughout the football and basketball seasons Pep Club, School Beautiful, and School Spirit decorated homes and lockers of teams.

The Convalescent Committee had a Halloween party for the children's home, and another at Christmas. The committee also held food drives for needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

The Daddy-Daughter Dinner was held on Valentines Day to get girls together with their daddies.

Girls' Club officers, Lori Roxberg, treasurer; Coby Kuhn, president; Jane Sullivan, vice-president; and Jane Davis, secretary.

Coby Kuhn says a few final words before turning over the Girls' Club presidency to Kathy Stuart.

Mr. Legs contest, held in late winter, is another money-raising project for Girls' Club. This year's winner was Sidney Baird, a junior.

Man of the Year is the next event sponsored by Girls' Club. This gives RHS girls a chance to pick the best all around guy in the school. Mike Burford was crowned Man of the Year at Spinsters Spree.

Spree is the big project Girls'

Club works toward throughout the year. All girls have the chance to nab the guy of their choice and see what it feels like to be the initiator of a big evening.

Installation, in late spring, was the day for turning Girls' Club Board positions over to anxious junior or sophomore girls for the following year of work, fun and learning.

Debbie Jepson, Mary McBride; Row 4: Holly MacDonald, Sandy Long, Sandy Tippins, Sara Leachman, Susie Booth, Betsy Bengé, Bette Hansen, Laurie Jones; Row 5: Cindy Ekstrand, Amy Grismer, Lisa Shimp, Chris Rutenbeck, Amy Follett, Andi Leachman, Lisa Carey, Mindy Roemer.

Sharks present "The Greatest Show On Earth"

The Senior Finale is performed out of the water.

"The Greatest Show On Earth" was the theme for this year's Sharks Club pageant which was presented April 18, 19, and 20.

With John Waters as master of ceremonies the synchronized swimmers, under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Swanson, presented 11 numbers including a solo by Carrie Bowlsby and a duet by Laurie Gruber and Ann Gibbs.

A trio included Jill Carey, Diane Sargeant, and Caroline Kelley, and Dru Ward, Randi Ray, Mary Ranniger, Patti Schropp, Dana Olson, and Laurie Miller composed a sextet.

Each group was responsible for their own costume and music.

Cheerleaders expand to four groups

Row 1: Kari Lomen, Michelle Nurczyk, Marcia Nauman, Katy Joyce, Mary Wellman, Kathy Farquhar. Row 2: Marla McBride, Annette Kauffman, Diane Sargent, Mary Ranniger, Gina Clemenson, Mary Eddy.

Roosevelt Cheerleaders expanded from two groups to four this year.

In previous years the Varsity Cheerleaders performed at football, basketball, and swimming contests. Last year they added girls' basketball and girls' swimming to their agenda.

Wrestling Cheerleaders performed at wrestling and cross country meets.

Due to the addition of the girls' sports the Varsity Cheerleaders found their work load too heavy and a problem where school work or other activities were concerned.

Therefore, this year Swimming Cheerleaders, and Basketball Cheerleaders were added to accommodate the added work load.

Captains of the groups included: Wrestling, Barb Stacy; Swimming, Pat Willer; Football/Basketball, Katy Joyce and Marcia Nauman.

Christmas Dance put on by senior girls

Christmas Dance is put on annually by a group of senior girls. These girls pay $20 to be on the Christmas Dance committee and are entitled to help plan the dance and also ask the male of their choice to it.

The money the girls raise by this means is used to finance the dance.

The committee sends out invitations to all Roosevelt students inviting them to the dance.

This year the Christmas Dance was held at the Hotel Fort Des Moines and had a good attendance.

The committee sends out invitations to all Roosevelt students inviting them to the dance.

Music was provided by "Children."

Bill Dingle was the refreshment host in a Santa Claus outfit. Tables were set with snowmen and a bowl of candy. Mistle toe was hung in strategic places around the room.

Doug Reichardt, Jill Carey and Brian Weisgerber take a rest after a long dancing period.

Stage Crew: Craig Miller, Larry Nelson, George Peak, Kirby Lohff, and Brook Wennerstrum.

Stage and AV Crews help RHS run smoothly

The AV (audio visual) crew is in charge of delivering equipment such as film projectors, microphones, record players, and tape recorders to all parts of the school.

The fascinating part about their job is that each one of them can run and repair movie projectors, the thermafax dry mount press, and copy machines.

The crew consists of seniors Steve Vermeulen, chairperson; Bill Yeaeger, vice-chairperson; Carla Curtis, and Jim Wolf.

The Stage Crew is an important part of any production. The crew does the lighting for all of the plays, helps the Drama Department build sets, and plays a part in each school assembly.

Commented stage manager Larry Nelson, "Everyone just comes as much as they can, and does whatever is needed to be done."

The members of this crew are Larry Nelson, Nate Goreham, John Waters, Roger Remington, Tom Watts, Craig Miller, Kirby Lohff, Keith Stohlgren, Brian Hintz, and Barry

Paterson.

The Sound Crew includes Karl Isham, Dennis Vanliew, Mike Sandler, and Dale Bieurmenn.

AV Crew: Jim Wolfe, Mrs. Hutson, Barb Stacy, Carla Curtis, and Steve Vermuelen.

VTR tapes for speech, mass media, and drama

VTR Crew: Row 1: Cortney Kintzer and Stephanie Michael. Row 2: Curt Clemenson, Rick Palmer, Scott Chapman. Row 3: Dick Colburn, Dale Dupuy, and Dave Durden.

Rick Palmer waits for his cue while filming for a mass media class.

The VTR (vidio tape recording) Crew tapes speakers, special television shows, and news broadcasts for later use in classes.

Speech, mass media, and drama classes also use the crew to tape class assignments, such as the ten minute newscasts that mass media classes did.

The crew consists of Scott Chapman, Stephanie Michael, Dave Durden, Curt Clemenson, Dick Colburn, Rick Palmer, Dale Dupuy, and Cortney Kintzer.

Debaters have best year; Leiserowitz heads chess team

Row 1: Beth Rocap, Debbie Easterly, Fae Brown, Michelle Hensly, Ann Paterson, Lorraine Smith; Row 2: Colin French, John Ehlich, Mike

Badower, Tom Bowen, Steve Van Oel, Gary Laraw, Mark Barkley, Mrs. McMahill.

Roosevelt debaters and speaking squad completed their most successful year ever.

In the 51 years prior to this year the school had earned only five trophies, plaques or awards.

Things soon changed when Mrs. Janet McMahill and her speakers rarely came back from a tournament empty handed and added at least 20 new pieces of brass to the trophy case.

The debaters were ranked in the top ten of the state at one time early in the year.

The 23 debaters and speakers included Cath Carpenter, Jim Wine, John Ehrlich, Dave Nichols, Tom Bowen, Gary Laraw, Ann Paterson, Becky Kreamer, Lorraine Smith, Fae Brown, Peter Tunnicliffe, Steve Van Oel, John Reed, and Mark Barkley.

Also, Debbie Easterly, Michell Hebsley, Laurie Wand, Beth Rocap, Colin French, Mike Badower, Joel Berg, and Jim Modaff.

Chess Team: President Bruce Leiserowitz, Chip Bunce, Mr. Zike, and Kent Wilson.

Students from Brazil, Germany

Uwe Lieback and Jackson Viegas were Roosevelt's foreign exchange students this year.

Uwe Lieback, from West Berlin, Germany, spoke good English and participated in several of Roosevelt's singing groups.

Jackson Viegas, from Brazil, spoke little English.

Mr. Kephart's government classes had a chance to hear both students speak. Jackson with an interpreter, on their own government, and their countries' reaction to our government. The students also had an opportunity to ask questions of Uwe and Jackson.

International Club: Row 1: Laurie Rofinot, George Peak; Row 2: Beth Rocap, Elizabeth Laughead, Ruth Burch, Uwe Lieback, David Mankins,

Ski and Equestrian Clubs hold annual events

The Roosevelt Ski Club went on its annual ski trip to Steamboat, Colorado with much success, again this year.

Prior to the trip, films, discussions, and planning meetings filled the club's time.

With the beginners in the group receiving helpful advice from the 'experts' everyone got along very well.

The Equestrian Club, a group of people who are interested in horses, also had a good year.

Sponsored by Mr. Carlson the group participated in horse shows, went riding, and had other social get togethers.

Equestrian Club: Row 1: Wendy Morgan, Ann Frahm, Cindy Black, Candy Porter, Hilary Hirsh, Cindy Hanrahan. Row 2: Amy Becker, - - -, John Schatt, Carla Bunce, Sue Eggleston, Mark Booker.

DECA and OE prepare students for future

Office Education: Debbie Cruchelow, Mrs. Witzenburg, Lori Crouse, Joan Street, Cheryl Richardson, Sharon Van Verth, Tresa Gillette, Lucy Rood, Tina Richardson, Katy Joyce, Renee Marmion, Joyce Vance, Sharon Mitchell, Karen Wallace.

The Distributive Education Club of America (DECA) and Office Education (OE) prepare students for employment immediately after graduation.

In DECA the student attends classes in the morning and works in the afternoon.

OE concentrates on preparing students for office type jobs—typing, short and note hand, and so on.

DECA was sponsored by Mr. Else and OE by Mrs. Witzenburg.

Russell, Rossenfeld head Drama Club-Thespians

The Roosevelt Drama Club and Thespians were involved in three dramatic productions this year at Roosevelt.

These included: "The Bat" — an old time, melodramatic, murder mystery; "Little Mary Sunshine" — a spoof on musicals of yesteryear; and "The Savage Dilema" — a story set in an insane asylum.

The club also had a demonstration on the art of applying make-up by student teacher Bob Baker.

Officers for this year's club were: president, Val Russell; vice-president, Ellie Rossenfeld; Secretary, Jenny Carr; historian, Billie Jean McNabb; treasurer, George Peak; and scribe, Sarah Scales.

"Gotta get to the Drama Club meeting. Gotta get to the Drama Club meeting. Getta get . . ."

Silence is golden for Roosevelt Mime Troup

Webster defines "mime" by saying, "To play a part with mimic action and usually without words." Roosevelt Mimes all fit that description with their faces concealed in white and their eyebrows etched in black.

Highlighting their year was the opportunity to meet professional mimes, Bert Houle and Sophie Willbeaux, who performed at Roosevelt second semester.

The troupe included: Master Mime Katy Horning, Ellie Rossenfeld, Val Russell, Mike Sandler, John Waters, Sue Lyon, Dave Herren, Mary Mitchell, Chelle Stoner, Bob McNurlen, Joel Mosher, Jolene Utterback, and Ann Wetherell.

The Roosevelt Mimes: Row 1: Mike Sandler, Joel Mosher, John Waters, Dave Herron, Bob McNurlen. Row 2: Ann Wetherell, Ellie Rossenfeld, Sue Lyon, Mary Mitchell, Val Russell. Row 3: Jolene Utterback, Chelle Stoner, Katy Horning.

Joel Mosher and Debbie Reeves make 'promises' before he leaves on a dangerous mission.

The musical called for a large chorus.

Billie Jean McNabb, as an old opera singer, makes her singing debut in "Little Mary Sunshine."

Practices called for student director Becky Aldridge to help block out the scenes.

"Little Mary Sunshine" spoof on old-time musicals

Mark Kennedy is adopted by Brook Wennerstrum with some reservations and doubts on Brook's part.

"Little Mary Sunshine", put on by Roosevelt's Drama Department was a spoof on old-time musicals with a lot of overacting and fairy tale scenes.

Little Mary Sunshine, played by Debbie Reeves, was loved by one and all. She owned a small inn in the mountains with her companion, played by Ellie Rossenfeld.

She is in financial trouble when she receives a visit from a group of dignified ladies from a girls' training school and the Mounties arrive in search of the mystical villain, Yellow Feather.

Romances ran high among the ladies and soldiers, with the most sparkling between Little Mary Sunshine and the handsome commanding officer of the Mounties.

Complications arise as Mark Kennedy goes out on his own to show his 'true love', Ellie Rossenfeld how brave he is and goes to Brook Wennerstrum, the old Indian chief for help.

Ellie Rossenfeld further complicates things as she takes after Mata Hari and goes out spying.

Of course, all is fanally resolved with a 'happily ever after' ending.

Concert Chorus, first row: Nancy O'Connell, Karen Daniels, Marianne Wentz, Sue Lyon, Valerie Anderson, Laurie Betts, Carol Reeve, Laurie Rofinot, Barb Durden, Cassie Benning, Sharon Johnston, Kathy Green, Ann Patterson. Roosevelt choral groups sing at big social events

The Roosevelt choral groups have been in demand all year. All groups participated in the winter and spring concerts.

Concert Chorus gave a Christmas performance for the YWCA and Luthern Hospital. They also participated in the May 17, All City Music Festival held at Veterans Auditorium.

The Early Dawn, Roosevelt's Swing Choir, performed for the Des Moines Saddle Club, Bett's Cadillac Christmas party at Babes, and the Tux unit of Za-Ga-Zig Shrine at the Elbon Club. They performed at the Roosevelt Music Booster dinner, and at the AASA Midwest Division conference, held at the Hotel Fort Des Moines.

The Roosevelt Singers were accompanied by the Early Dawn at the Salvation Army Thanksgiving luncheon for the elderly.

Many singers were also involved in the musical "Little Mary Sunshine."

Selected for All-state Chorus were Sue Lyon, Kathy Green, Quentin Childs, Joel Mosher, Lise Ludwig, Debbie Reeves, Mary Hess, Stan Bench, Dave Farr, and Richard Seltzer.

Other honors were received by

Sue Lyon, Debbie Reeves, Quentin Childs, Joel Mosher, and the Mixed Quartet, all of whom received a one rating in the State Solo and Ensemble Contest.

The highlight of the year was the spring concert where all the groups did a tremendous job and received a very warm response from the audience.

Swing Choir: Valerie Anderson, Janet Hawk, Teresa Paulson, Sue Lyon, Rhondi Simpson, Corky Dochterman, Ann Patterson, Mary Hess, Debbie

Under the leadership of Sherry Madsen and Mark Barkley as editor and managing editor respectively the Roundup's spring staff aimed their goals and energies towards improving and updating the Roundup's overall style and make-up.

The spring Roundup staff worked well together, under junior supervision on all phases of the paper and were always filling in where work needed to be done.

Spring staff updates Roundup

Kathy Hanlon and Teri Ennis get some help in typing stories for their pages from Circulation Manager Tedd Shirley. Meanwhile Mark Barkley and Al Koch discuss being number one, and some suggestions for improvement on the sports page.

Stephanie Michael writes a story as Kathy Hanlon types one. Sue Beck finds time out from her busy schedule of selling ads to read a book.

Although parking space is one of Roosevelt's big problems there's always plenty of room at 3:05.

Mary Mitchell and Val Russel add a little humor to the Senior Breakfast.

Girls' Club installation is a happy, sad, exciting time.

Leaders Club lends girls' gym teachers a hand

Row 1: Sue Leicht, Becky Seaman, Beth Bening, Jennifer Lock, Diane Fredericks; Row 2: Jule Lutz, Laurie Scott, Joni Ibbotson, Janet Book, Karen Smith, Jane Sullivan, Lisa Morinello, Kim Carey, Christie Wor-

Leaders Club was organized for the purpose of helping out the girls' gym teachers. They direct exercises, referee games, and take the lead in gym activities.

Besides this, the group also has extra activities such as pot lucks, picnics and play days.

Clinics and tryouts are held at the beginning of October. The girls' who successfully tryout are initiated over a six week period of wearing navy blue and white with bobby socks and sneakers. Candy is carried by the "Lolies" for the hungry Leaders.

Leaders have also gathered food for a needy family at Christmas time, held progressive dinners, and gone caroling with a church group.

Fall officers were: Beth Bening, president; Wendy Morgan, vice-president; Sue Leicht, secretary; and Becky Seaman, treasurer.

Latin Club in annual events

The Roosevelt Latin Club is made up of students from Latin classes who wish to participate in extracurricular activities with their "latin" friends.

Led by president John Lindsey and sponsor Mrs. Fant, this year's Latin Club participated in all the usual events.

There was the All-City Roman Banquet, and the State Latin Club Convention.

A bake sale was used to raise money for the club.

Shooting Club's first year is successful

The Roosevelt Shooting Team is a small but talented group.

They took first place in the Drake Relays shooting competition, which can be considered very good for their first year.

With four members of the seven man team graduating this year the group will be needing new members for next year.

Spanish, French clubs promote culture study

The Roosevelt Spanish and French clubs continue to promote culture, as well as language study, to Roosevelt students.

The French Club, sponsored by Mr. Thelen, held it's annual French dinner at the Des Moines Golf and Country Club.

Only French was spoken during the dinner of fine French cuisine.

The club also had a bake sale of French pasteries as well as several social gatherings.

The Spanish Club also promoted culture study with piñata parties and other Spanish get togethers.

Their new sponsor is Mrs. - - - .

Jim Wine heads Spring Student Council

Karen Daniels, Colin French. Row 4: Sandy Long, Mr. Doug Johnson, Tammy Anderson, Sara Kelley, George Peak, Becky Nissly, Denise Gowdey.

Roosevelt's Spring Student Council was headed by junior Jim Wine. Vice-presidents were Brook Wennerstrum and Stan Bench. Laurie Rofinot was secretary and Mel Kacena was treasurer.

Student Council's Fun Night was a big success this year with a large attendance. Activities included swimming, roller skating, open gym, and refreshments. There was also live music in the girls' gym.

Not so successful was the Free Fare Concert. After an assembly to 'introduce' the group tickets sales were so low that the evening concert was cancelled.

Student Council also continued the clean up campaign and its other usual activities.

All-city Student Council members: George Peak, Jennifer Lock, Jim Wine, Joel From, Stan Bench.

Vice-president Stan Bench got a little carried away with the clean-up campaign which was sponsored by Student Council.

Although many accuse the Student body of apathy concerning Student Council, the meetings are attended by large numbers.

Editors Sandy Miller, Drinda Stanger, and Sherry Madsen found their work challenging.

Yearbook staff works for continuity

Row 1: Barb Durden, Ed Wolf, Sherry Madsen, Drinda Stanger, Sandy Miller, Nancy Nicholas, Row 2: Kathie Miller, Carol Moore, Mark Barkley, Jule Lutz, Joni Ibbotson, Sue Hanrahan, Jody Weiss, Stephanie

Michael, Row 3: Debbie Easterly, Joan Libbey, Becky Aldridge, Marcia Gentleman, Bill Bump, Brian Sheel.

Index editor Jody Weiss keeps accurate files on Roosevelt students.

With "We May Never Pass This Way Again" as their theme and continuity as their goal, the 1974 annual staff set out to put together Roosevelt's yearbook, the Roundup.

"To emphasize the theme we're using pieces of the lyrics of the song as section headlines rather than the traditional 'Sports' and 'Academic' and so on," commented Drinda Stanger, editor.

"By doing this, and by carrying our cover design throughout the book, we hope to give the book a sense of continuity," she added.

Other changes in the 1974 annual include a change in cover material, from vinyl, to the more contemporary cloth.

Division pages were changed from the usual one, big picture, to a collection of smaller pictures connected with black lining.

"There are a lot of little changes in this year's book that probably no one but a journalism student would notice," said Drinda.

Page labels were used at the bottom of each page, by the page number.

Also, because of a cutback in funds, the book was shortened by eight pages and no color pictures were used this year.

Las Vegas comes to Roosevelt during Spree

"Night On The Town" was the theme of the annual Girls' Club Spinster's Spree which was held on March 16.

The boys' gym went Las Vegas complete with Black Jack, Go Fish, Balloon Bust, and Bingo booths.

The Pink Flamingo bar and Playboy Bunnies added to the authenticity of the Las Vegas theme.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Mike Burford "Man of the Year" by Girls' Club president Coby Kuhn. Other candidates were: Mike Bloomburg, Bennett Ely, Mark Sloan, Mark Kennedy, and Dave Harvey.

Music for the night was supplied by Atlantis.

Joan Libbey and Dave Durden visit the various Spree booths.

Amid the various activities, Dave Durden, senior, joins in playing a game of volleyball at "Fun Night."

"Fun Night" activities included an open swim period in the Roosevelt pool.

"Fun Night" offers something for everyone

Carolyn Nicol gets some assistance from a friend while trying to make her skates fit.

Student Council sponsored "Fun Night" on April 25. Denise Gowdey explains "Fun Night's" success by saying, "The reason Fun Night was so popular is because it really offers something for everyone. There are so many different activities to choose from."

This Fun Night was no exception. Roller skating through the hallways, swimming in the pool, open recreation in the gym, Mimes and Marx Brother movies in the auditorium were a few of the activities. Sidhartha supplied the evening's music in the girls' gym.

An added attraction was the cracker eating contest in which Scott Stines came in first and Jerry Thorpe a close second.

"All in all it really went well," commented Denise.

Steve Libbey, Barry Aldridge, and Brian Epps talk in the cafeteria where refreshments were sold.

Stage Band played at the Marching Band's pancake breakfast this year.

Instrumental music groups under new direction

Mr. Hewus was Roosevelt's new instrumental music director this year. He replaced Mr. Bagley, who retired last year.

The Roosevelt Orchestra played at "The Bat", "Little Mary Sunshine" and "The Savage Dilemma" as well as playing in Roosevelt's instrumental music concert.

The Stage Band appeared at the Daddy Daughter Dinner which is put on by Girls' Club. They also played at the Marching bands pancake breakfast and the Band Banquet.

Pep Band appeared at basketball games throughout the year. They helped out the cheerleaders by playing the school songs and played at halftime.

The Roosevelt Orchestra played at the three Roosevelt plays this year.

"Savage Dilema" is comedy with a point

Members of the cast and stage crew pose for a quick picture.

"The Savage Dilema" was Roosevelt's last play for the 1973-74 school year.

The story involved the patients of an insane asylum, Mrs. Savage, a wealthy former patient of the institute, and the young couple who are launching themselves into lives of crime when they hide out in the institute.

Throughout the play the doctor and his nurse are trying to find a tactful way of asking Mrs. Savage for the money they need to keep the institute open.

When the doctor finds that Mrs. Savage doesn't have any money to give the institute and that she is plotting with the criminals several questions are raised.

The patients in the institute play a great part in solving the problems of all involved.

Stan Bench played the doctor and head of the institute.

"The Savage Dilema" drew a good sized audience.

Carter Hays joins with others at Prom who spent much of the evening dancing.

The 1974 Senior Prom is a big success

The 1974 Senior Prom was a big success with a large attendance and a lot of smiles and dancing.

Senior Prom was held at the Riviera Ball Room in Riverview Park on May 10, at 8 p.m. The Dance ended at about 12 midnight.

"Dakatah" provided the music for the evening and many of the Roosevelt students and their dates which attended the dance took the opportunity to spend long hours dancing to the live music.

Besides the music there were refreshments, and tables and chairs set up along the edges of the room for those who needed a rest.

Senior Frolics almost cancelled for 2nd year

Mary Mitchell gets in on the act at Senior Breakfast, where Frolics were held this year.

Bat Man arrives and John Waters is caught in the act.

Roosevelts girls' find the antics of Senior Frolics quite amusing.

The 1974 Senior Frolics almost weren't this year. Originally scheduled for early May the Frolics were cancelled because school administration felt that they weren't ready to present their show.

Last year (1973) Senior Frolics were cancelled because of lack of participation and many students were upset because of the apathy.

So when Frolics were cancelled this year it raised quite a bit of controversy.

However, Frolics were rescheduled for May 31 at the Senior Breakfast, and were a smashing success.

Dave Mankins is valedictorian

Tony DeCarlo looks calm as he strides across the stage.

Governor Robert Ray spoke at Roosevelt's 1974 Commencement Exercises which were held at Veterans Memorial Auditorium, June 4, at 8 p.m.

Valedictorian of the class of about 450 was David Mankins.

Receiving the Citizenship Award for Outstanding Service to Roosevelt were Jane Sullivan and Jim Wolf.

One of the highlights of the evening was when Gov. Ray got up to personally give his daughter, Randi, her diploma.

We may never pass this way again

We were always told, "High school is the best time of your life, enjoy it!"

But when we were struggling with a math test or up till 2:00 a.m. trying to finish an English paper or got caught skipping by that one teacher that really was hard to get along with—it was hard to believe that this was the best time of our lives.

Now look back.

It's so easy to see now; now that it's over.

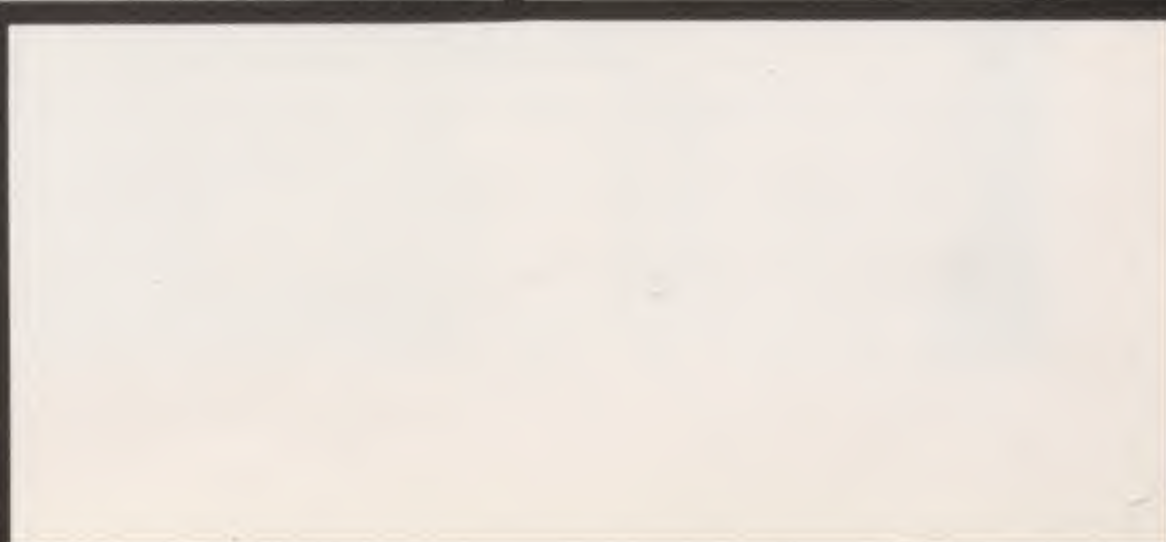

There really were some good times and good friends and we might even have learned something.

Maybe math wasn't so easy, but history was and we did get a 1 on that English paper and the rest of our teachers were really pretty nice.

A few years from now we'll be telling a little sister or friend the same thing.

" . . . enjoy it.!"

Becky Aldridge takes her time getting from class to class.

They don't see just where we're going

Here and Now

If here and now be but a timely span between today's unhappiness, tomorrow's joy's
what if today's abundant sorrow's never end,
tomorrow never comes,
what then?
If youth,
impatient of the disrespect
according if,
yearns to be old,
age chafes
beneath the manifold losses of its prime and mourns neglect;
So let it be for here and now,
my dear,
not for the when
of an eternity;
no gazer in the crystal ball can see the future
as we see the here and now.

'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend

Students may gain many new experiences at Roosevelt. Interests are discovered, opinions are challenged and changed, new and varied people touch their lives.

These people range from classmates, to those involved in school activities, to classroom teachers.

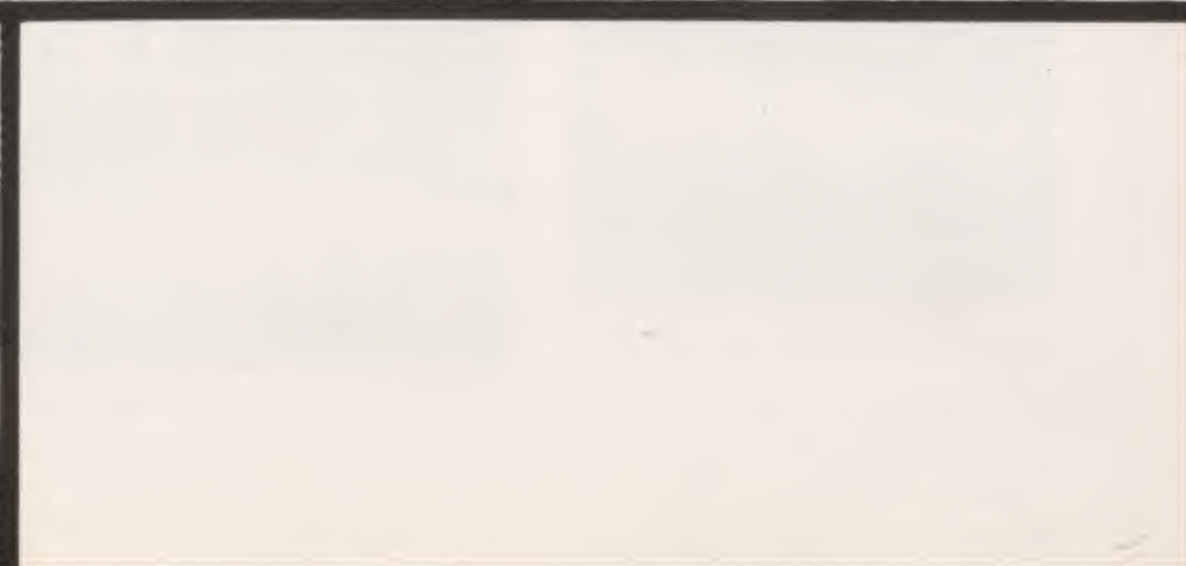

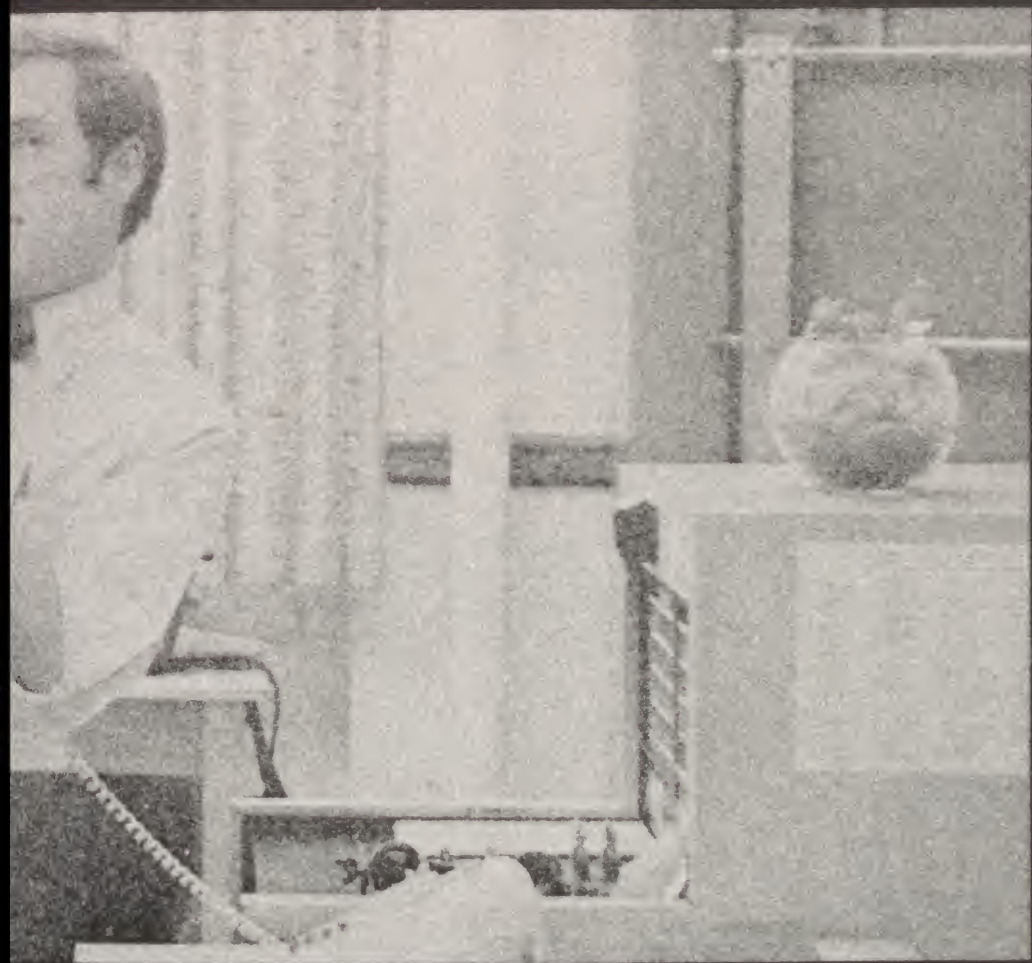

These teachers can be very special to a student. They can provoke a student to ask questions of themselves, to challenge the constitutionality of certain laws, to disagree and express themselves.

As they come to know students, teachers share their joys and disappointments, successes and failures. Through all this comes learning.

Through all this, the gratitude that is felt is rarely expressed.

It can be very hard to say, "Thank you." Perhaps this is the best way to say it: "I may never pass this way again—that's why I want it with you."

Administration solves new problems

Confronting the Des Moines School Board were such vital problems as the fuel shortage and the breakup of the Metro Conference. The board faced these, and other problems this year.

In trying to conserve energy the school board cancelled all school activities from December 22 to January 4. This did not effect Roosevelt very much, except for the two basketball tournaments. There were no practices during that time, so several of the sports events Roosevelt was to participate in were rescheduled.

The Roosevelt administration is also hard at work. In dealing with the lunchroom situation teachers were added to the students, working as lunchroom monitors.

The Keck Seminars, a day when a variety of mini-courses are offered to Roosevelt students, were not held this year.

According to Mr. Bruce Gardner, principal of Roosevelt, the seminars were cancelled due to attendance problems in past years. Ways to restructure the program are being studied.

Row one: James Cunningham, secretary; Kate Goldman, president; Dwight Davis, superintendent;
Row two: Dr. George Caudill, Merle Sclampp, Noldin Gentry, Dr. John McCaw, Mrs. Jack Spevak, Dr. Ora Niffenegger.

Mr. Bruce Gardner finishes some paper work.

Mr. Barrett and Mr. Curnutt talk in the office.

Mr. Walden makes a few suggestions to a Roosevelt student.

Mrs. Seaver confers on the telephone.

Counselors more available to Roosevelt students

The spacious new counseling center has made not only the counselors, but college information, job opportunities, and other counseling services much more available.

Outside of the room are posted college pamphlets, scholarship information, job information, and a list of classes available at Roosevelt.

Roosevelt counselors include: Mrs. Seaver, Mr. Walden, Mr. Walker, and Mrs. Wehrle.

Mrs. Wehrle ponders a schedule problem of a Roosevelt sophomore.

Mr. Walker catches up on some job information.

Counseling and VTR departments are working hard

From In Cold Blood to wrestling meets, Mrs. Ruby Wells and her VTR crew have had an extremely active year. The VTR crew consists of Scott Chapman, Dick Colburn, Curt Clemenson, Dave Durden, Dale Dupuy, Stephanie Michael, and Rick Palmer.

Having purchased a new Panasonic VTR machine and the installation of a new switchboard they are now able to film slow motion and do other special effects.

"So far this year has been the best, with the addition of our Panasonic and the help of our dedicated crew. They're great," commented Mrs. Wells.

Mrs. Hutson with the help of Jim Wolf, Steve Vermurre, Bill Yeager, and Carla Curtis worked with the audio visual equipment.

Mrs. McLaughlin gives a smile for the yearbook photographer.

Mrs. Wells looks at a class in the VTR room.

Mrs. Hutson seems to be enjoying herself even with all her paper work.

Mrs. Ginther and Miss Crouthamel confer on counseling schedules.

Mrs. Eckman stops and glances up as she ponders over her work.

English teachers at Roosevelt use new teaching techniques

English teachers at Roosevelt are using more creative materials, such as films, and some students are doing more individual projects.

One major change in the English department is that Mrs. Janet McMahill is now head of the Speech and Forensics section. Mrs. McMahonill has planned new formats for the speech classes. In Speech II the students are studying persuasion in communications.

Speech III is concerned with speaking through the medias such as radio. Mrs. McMahonill is also involved in radio programs put on by students.

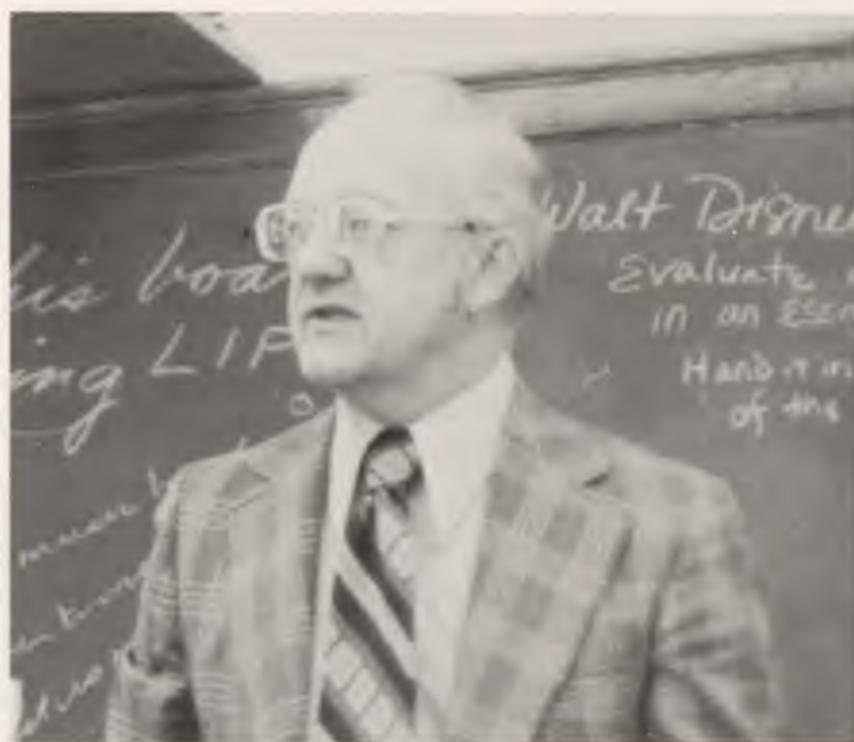

Mr. Freimuth teaches his students to listen as well as read American Lit. classics.

Mrs. Clark's smile brightens up the office.

Mr. Hantz reads the daily bulletin to his homeroom.

Mr. Craft delivers his daily pearls of wisdom.

GOAL students work with handicapped, elderly.

Some of the English students are combining their project with Project GOAL (Get Out And Learn). This is a project started by the student council that involves the student and someone in the community.

The student finds some area that he is interested in and works outside of the classroom for one-fourth credit. Some of the past activities have been working with the handicapped and the elderly.

Mr. Holcomb stops in to ask Mrs. McMahon about the debate team.

Mr. Haley checks attendance in journalism.

Mr. Anderson, fondly called R. C. by his drama students, types up a cast list.

Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Fant talk over recent Roosevelt happenings.

Mr. Pfander discusses the fine points of speech with sophomore Kathy Bever.

Mrs. Robinson adds her own viewpoints to the classes.

Mrs. Bjornstad leads a class discussion.

Variety of changes in Social Science Department

Mr. Kephart returns to find Mrs. Sipnewski in control of the class with a little help from Mr. Treman.

Mrs. Podhajsky gets things in order before leaving Roosevelt.

There were a couple of changes in Roosevelt's Social Science Department this year; one planned for and the other not.

Mrs. Podhajsky announced that she would be leaving after first semester because she and her family were moving. Mrs. Crings was her replacement.

However, Mr. Kephart suffered

Mr. Prior helped out in the cafeteria by keeping an eye open for stranded trays.

Mr. Bruce lets his class work in small groups to encourage discussion.

Mr. Shaffer stresses a point in his new class.

Mr. Johnson and Mr. Parks take time out for a talk in the library.

Mrs. Krings took over for Mrs. Podhasky second semester.

an 'unscheduled' heart attack in late January, and was away from school for about a month and a half.

Mrs. Sipnewski replaced him in the classroom, where he taught Government, and several teachers helped fill in in the athletic department where Mr. Kephart worked.

Another change in the department involves a new class. It is our changing society.

"The changes are because of the needs, wants, and ideas of the students and myself," said Mr. John Shaffer, teacher of the class.

"A class like this can be somewhat changed from one period to another, depending on the students and their feelings."

Mr. Shaffer is also the president of the Faculty Club at Roosevelt and the coach of the wrestling team.

Mr. Siebert uses his planning period to gather information for a history lecture.

Bigger turnout for Science classes

Mrs. Maloney discusses the fundamentals of chemistry.

Mr. Hewins answers a student's question.

Mr. Adcock and Mr. Koch stand by their friend, the human skeleton.

The Science Department at Roosevelt still offers a wide selection of classes. Although the classes are the same the enrollment is reported as being slightly higher than last year in some of the classes, according to Mr. Jack Koch, head of the department.

A growing number of students are taking advanced biology. The class has changed little, except for the individual projects the students do. For instance, Sandy Frank, a senior, did a study on the effects of light and temperature on plant seeds.

Referring to the class Sandy said, "It's not a really easy class, but it is fun."

Mr. Kirkpatrick finds teaching physics rewarding.

Mr. Owens left Roosevelt after first semester.

New Class added to the Math Department

The Math department at Roosevelt started the year with one less faculty member. This was caused by the retirement of Mr. Gordon Garrison.

Mr. Garrison taught geometry and algebra II. He had been teaching at Roosevelt for thirteen years.

The Math department also added a new class. Calculus was taught as a separate class by Mr. Ronald Whitlatch.

Once again Roosevelt sent students to the Annual High School Mathematics Examination which was held on March 12. In the past Roosevelt students have done rather well, always scoring near the top in the state, according to Mr. Clyde Anderson, head of the Math department. This year fifty Roosevelt students took part in this contest.

Mr. Akers studies a problem in Algebra II.

Mr. Whitlatch checks the rules for another of his wonderful number games.

Mrs. Biddle emphasizes a point during her algebra class.

Mr. Anderson gives algebra II students their nightly homework assignment.

Mr. Cummings shares a humorous moment with his class.

Overhead projector adds an interesting touch to Mr. Darling's math classes.

Ms. Mayfield new to RHS Language Department

Ms. Ann Mayfield is a new teacher of Spanish and French in the Roosevelt language department.

Ms. Mayfield, a recent graduate of the University of Minnesota, is doing her first year of teaching at Roosevelt.

In her classes she has some students on independent study. One student is doing an oral project, in which she must talk with Ms. Mayfield in French for a certain amount of time.

Ms. Mayfield also spends her time helping Mrs. Janet McMahon with the forensics team. She used to be a debator and therefore enjoys working in it.

"It's a school, but I enjoy it," was her reaction to Roosevelt.

In one other language class, Mrs. Joyce Fant, the Latin teacher, says the Latin classes are becoming more individualized. She also said that in this department the teachers are trying to get mini-courses set up for next year.

Monsieurs Thelen and Moore wait expectantly for the answer to their question.

Mr. Graham, German teacher, works around a cluttered desk.

Mrs. Holm shares a laugh with one of her Spanish classes.

Ms. Mayfield, new to Roosevelt, teaches both Spanish and French.

Mr. Hans gives Mrs. Milligan some advice on her new course, Art Appreciation.

Mr. Naminga, art teacher.

Mr. Shiebel looks over some music for Mixed Chorus.

Art Appreciation—new course

Mrs. Judith Milligan taught Art Appreciation, a new class in the Roosevelt Art Department.

This class was taught a little differently than most classes of this type. Instead of using only visual aids, such as slides and text books, a curriculum of experiences, discussion and experimentation was used.

According to Mrs. Milligan the class tried to see how the artist works and what an artist experiences.

"The way this class is being taught gets all of the senses involved by doing, rather than just seeing," said Mrs. Milligan.

Roosevelt had a new band director this year, Mr. Ronald Hewus, who replaced Mr. Robert Bagley.

Mr. Hewus has been teaching in the Des Moines, School System for the past five years at Weeks Junior High.

"I like Roosevelt but it is a different experience teaching at the high school level," said Mr. Hewus.

One of the big events of the year was a trip to Rapid City, South Dakota for the Ninth Annual Dakota Days Band Festival. The band attended a Doc Sevrenson concert, toured the Black Hills, and marched in a parade while there.

Roosevelt's new band director, Mr. Hewus.

Mr. Pierce and Mr. Else talk about their problems with typing classes.

Mrs. Witzenberg answers questions while figuring up a problem on the board.

Mrs. Fiest takes advantage of the special equipment available for OE use.

Office Education program continues to grow.

Mr. Bierbaum checks attendance in his accounting class.

Mr. Shriver checks test while the class works on a new assignment.

The Office Education program here at Roosevelt is more successful in its second year as it was its first year. The number of students had doubled from last year.

Some of the places students are employed are law firms, insurance companies, and the internal revenue.

According to Mrs. Marjorie Witzenburg, head of Office Education, this program definitely helps the student. Last year many of them kept their jobs full time after graduation.

Mr. Bielstien jokes with his Typing I class before a timed writing.

Shop and homemaking promotes do-it-yourself

Industrial arts teachers Mr. Walter Hays and Mr. James Stokka step outside for a breath of fresh air.

The Industrial Arts Department and the Homemaking Department are still promoting do-it-yourself projects to Roosevelt students.

Cooking, sewing and family living are taught in the homemaking rooms. Family Living, an alternative to the senior requirement for economics, is the homemaking class with the largest male population.

The electronics course added to the industrial arts curriculum last year inspired senior Mark Adams to create a music synthesizer, a large project that took nearly two years.

Mr. LaMoine Parkhurst is new at Roosevelt, teaching carpentry and machine shop. His addition to the staff now brings the number to four in the Industrial Arts department.

Electronics is being offered for the first time. There are three electronic classes with a total enrollment of 47 students. There seems to be interest in this class, according to Mr. Lawrence Stokka, head of the department.

A new section of the industrial arts department has been approved. This will allow the classes to expand.

The female enrollment is up in these classes, especially woods and drafting. "They are becoming aware of what we have to offer to help them in everyday life," said Mr. Stokka.

The Home Economics department at Roosevelt has been doing many interesting things. The Family Living classes have had a number of speakers during the year. The topics have ranged from family economics to choice of marriage partners to adoption.

Mr. Beech and Mr. Parkhurst look over a student's final project.

Miss Ruth Baumgartner and Miss Sandra Hasenclever go over plans for a sewing project.

The Child Development class has been doing several things in the community. The students have helped at Hubbel Elementary School and visited the Van Meter School.

Drivers Ed. keeps on truckin'

David Church

Roosevelt students are once again filling the driver's education classes as full as possible. Even with the rising gasoline prices there are just as many driver education students this year as in the past.

The energy crisis of this year has not really effected the driver ed classes so far. As one measure to conserve gasoline the drivers' ed cars, during the first semester, were only being driven fifty miles an hour on the freeways and the highways.

The possibility of a motorcycle education program for Roosevelt is being looked into by this department. It is still in the planning but there has been a favorable response from many students regarding this.

Folk dances new to girls' PE; requirements changed

Students are still being kept physically fit by participating in the many activities of the Roosevelt physical education department. This year a few new things have been added.

In girls' P.E. the students learned folk dances from several different countries. "It was pretty interesting learning dances from other cultures, especially Germany since I'm learning that language," remarked junior Margaret Grove.

A new requirement for the number of days one must attend gym was set this year. Instead of the five days for boys and two for most girls, it is now two days a week for everyone.

According to Mrs. Nancy Swanson the number of students taking the life saving course offered in swimming here is up from last year.

Boys' P.E. teachers are Mr. Al Comito, Mr. Don Prior, Mr. Robert Anderson, and Mr. Tom Reed.

Mrs. Cole catches up on a little paper work while girls' play volleyball.

Mrs. Nancy Swanson, girls' gym teacher, relaxes while chaperoning an open house.

Mrs. Lakin spends much time returning books to their shelves after students have used them.

Library sponsors book sale

Mrs. Pierson, Mrs. Kreitinger, Mrs. Lakin.

The Roosevelt Library is still being used by students for the many class assignments they receive.

The library is receiving donated books as in past years. This year students are even in on the donating.

To bring Library Week, April 22-26, to the attention of the students, a number of musical programs were held in the library.

During the fall of this year the library sponsored a paperback book sale. According to Mrs. Charlene Lakin, one of Roosevelt's librarians, about $57 was raised and the students got some good bargains on books. The money was used to purchase more books for the library.

"We are trying all kinds of new ideas," commented Mrs. Lakin. "We also want to encourage everyone to use the library."

As times are changing, the school nurse at Roosevelt also finds the type of things she does changing. According to Mrs. Bridget Sweet, she is being used more and more as a resource person on topics such as venereal disease and abortion.

"I am also spending more and more time counselling girls and their problems than in the past," remarked Mrs. Sweet.

"This has been an unusually heavy illness year," said Mrs. Sweet, referring to the flu epidemic that hit many students this past year.

Mrs. Sweet has nine students observing her this year. They are from the Methodist Hospital. She has also been working on a writing committee doing a paper on health education for students.

Spaghetti and pizza are student favorites

The members of the Roosevelt cafeteria ladies spend much time preparing, serving, and cleaning up Roosevelt's mid-day repast.

The cafeteria is a busy place during lunch time—which proves that the food can't be all that bad.

The high prices of food didn't cause too many problems for the Roosevelt cafeteria. Roast Beef was the only food excluded from the menu because of high prices.

Even with the switch to a lot of foods made of soybeans, Roosevelt students continued to eat in the school lunchroom.

According to Mrs. Jessie Fairbank, manager of the cafeteria, the number of students eating here may have risen considering the enrollment at Roosevelt this year.

Spaghetti and pizza continue to be among the favorite dishes served in the lunchroom, along with hot sausage sandwiches and creamed turkey.

Life — so they say, is but a game

With two 60's stuck on the scoreboard
And two seconds handing on the clock,
The solemn boy in the center of eyes,
Squeezed by silence,
Seeks out the line with his feet,
Smooths his hands along his uniform,
Gently drums the ball against the floor,
Then measures the waiting net,
Raises the ball on his right hand,
Balances it with his left,
Calms it with fingertips,
Breathes,
Crouches,
Waits,
And then through the stretching of stillness,
Nudges it upward.
The ball
Slides up and out,
Lands, leans,
Wobbles, wavers,
Hesitates, exasperates,
Plays it coy
Until every face begs with unsounding screams—
And then, And then, And then,
Right before Roar-up,
Dives down and through.

Roosevelt ties for second in Metro Conference

The Roughriders started their season with a win over the East Sioux City Raiders, 26-0. Craig Schroeder, Kevin Loyet, Mark Sloan and Bill Harned each scored a touchdown. The Rider defense did not allow the Raiders to cross the 50-yard line throughout the game. East was held to only 89 yards rushing and three yards passing, while the Riders netted 207 yards rushing and 33 yards passing.

The following week the Riders opened Metro conference play and improved their mark to 2-0 by beating the Hoover Huskies. Roosevelt stopped a Hoover drive in the last few minutes of the game to assure the 27-26 victory.

The winning streak was short-lived, however, for the Riders took on the underrated North Polar Bears next and lost, 19-14.

The gridders staged a comeback by dumping Tech's Engineers for a homecoming victory September 29, 28-8. Mark Sloan and Jeff Edwards each scored twice for the Riders. Sloan ripped off two powerful runs to open the scoring. Then Edwards caught two touchdown passes from Schroeder.

Dan Spriggs intercepted a Tech pass in the end zone to start an 80-yard touchdown drive.

After four games Mark Sloan was the leading conference scorer, with nine touchdowns.

The Riders took on traditional rival East October 5 and routed them, 30-12. Kevin Loyet scored the opening Rider touchdown on a three-yard run.

With a 4-1 record behind them the Roughriders braced for the showdown with undefeated Dowling.

The Dowling struggle left its mark on the Riders, as the following week they entered the Valley Tiger's den to receive a 38-26 upset.

A four-way tie for second place in the conference came as a result of the Roughriders' 29-7 win over the ever-tough Lincoln Railsplitters on October 27.

Mark Sloan was unstoppable in his final conference game as he flew into the end zone three times. The points enabled him to retain his hold on the conference scoring race. Kevin Mike Burford and Phil Nelson rush to assist Dan Spriggs tackle a North ball carrier.

Senior John Hand rushes in on East's quarterback in an attempt to stop the East passing attack.

Loyet scored for the (Riders) on a 23-yard run to aid in the victory. Mike Burford iced the triumph by sacking Lincoln quarterback Rick Parsons in the end zone for a safety.

Non-conference Ankeny was the final opponent, and the Riders whipped them 27-6 for a 6-3 season record. Quarterback Craig Schroeder connected with nine passes for 222 yards, including three for touchdowns. The final score came on a 10-yard run by Bill Dingle.

Roosevelt, North, East, and Lincoln all finished the season tied for second place in the Metro Conference, behind the unbeaten Dowling Maroons. Mark Sloan ended the season with 80 points and was the conference's leading scorer.

In other individual honors the Rider placed five men on the Metropolitan all-conference team. Qualifying for first team positions were James Clark, center, and Mark Sloan, fullback and linebacker. Larry Jones, Frank Wise, and Erich Lemke all had second team berths. Honorable mention went to Phil Nelson, Don Laster, and Dan Spriggs.

Halfback Kevin Loyet searches for a break in the offensive line in the East Sioux City game.

The sophomore football team under Coach Dick Hewins, back coach Tom Greuning, and line coach Brian Larsen, finished their '74 season with a 2-5-1 record.

The team started off their season with a 0-0 deadlock with the Ankeny Hawks. After four quarters of rambling football on a field of mud, neither team managed to score.

It was undiscovered until a few days later that the tie game was a violation of a new football rule. All tie games, beginning last year, are supposed to be carried into overtime until the winner is decided.

The little Riders' next game was also played in the mud as they fell to Hoover 14-0. Coach Dick Hewins commented that Roosevelt just didn't play well.

Led by an awesome backfield of Larry Fowler, Armand Dyer, and Dave Robinson the little Riders blasted Tech 20-12 to pull off their first victory.

Mike Burford sacks the East quarterback for a big loss and a fumble as Roosevelt rolled over East 30-12.

Maintaining their winning streak the team then plowed the North Polar Bears 25-6.

Coach Dick Hewins called it an excellent game. He credited both defensive and offensive lines for the win. He added that ninth grader Dave Robinson was probably the games best player that day.

The little Riders winning streak was short lived however as East posted an 8-0 shutout on Roosevelt.

"It was an excellent game, except for the score," stated Coach Hewins, "We had over 400 yards of offense but couldn't score." Five fumbles inhibited many Rider touchdowns.

A touch Lincoln squad then beat the Riders 25-0. When asked about the game Coach Hewin's comment was, "I don't want to talk about it."

Then came Dowling, and an awesome Irish attack. The game was deadlocked 0-0 until two minutes before the half. The Maroons scored on two long runs to break the game open. The final score was 26-0, although the game was not badly played by Roosevelt.

In the last, and also the best game of the season for the little Riders, they were clipped by Valley in an excitement filled game which ended with the score 22-20.

Coach Hewins stated that Valleys players were much bigger that Roosevelt's, but it didn't matter. Hewins accredited Larry Fowler, Steve Whitney, Bob Baehr, and Pat Keough.

When the size and age of Roosevelt's sophomore team is taken into account the season can be seen as successful.

An extremely young ball club, with many eighth and ninth grade starters accounted for a big portion of the team's makeup.

Outstanding ninth graders for the sophomore team were Dave Robinson, Tom Phipps, Jeff Waters, Rusty Harned, Joe Mickunas, and Brett Howard.

Freshman swimmer Janet Lindstrom set national and state records to help the Roosevelt girls swim team take the state championship for the second consecutive year.

Under the direction of Coach Tom Reed the girl tankers finished their dual meet season with a 6-1 record before going on to state.

At the state meet Janet set a national record in the 100 yd. butterfly with a time of 1:02.97. Her state record was in the 200 yd. IM with a time of 2:21.56. She also had a third place finish in the 400 yd. freestyle.

Patti Schropp, senior, was the state champion in the 50 yd. freestyle with a time of :25.41.

Other state finalists included senior Randi Ray, juniors, Laura Jones and Jayne Hudelson, sophomore Holly Hull and freshman Jeannie McDonald. Roosevelt was the only school in the state meet to place finalists in every event.

Co-captains for this years team were seniors Becky Settlemyer and Patti Schropp.

State Champion Kathy Keck.

Roosevelt's girls' gymnastic team was again proved superior as they captured their fourth consecutive state title.

Junior Kathy Keck boosted the team by winning the all-around honors at the state meet. She out-pointed teammate, and defending all-around state champion, Diane Sargent by less than one point to capture the title.

Miss Keck also placed first in the uneven parallel bars and balance beam events.

Also winning places in the all-around for Roosevelt were Laurie Keck and Jill Carey, finishing fifth and sixth respectively.

Laurie Keck, a freshman, also gained two first place finishes. One in tumbling, and one in the floor exercise event.

Sophomore Carol McDonald placed second to Miss Keck in the tumbling event, and also second in the trampoline, behind champion Denise Buchheister of C.R. Washington.

also placed in the Trampoline event for Roosevelt, securing third and fifth place finishes respectively.

The girls captured team titles in both the regional and district meets sending them on to state. Diane Sargent led the girls by capturing the all-around honors in both the meets.

In the district meet, Roosevelt took first place finishes in every event.

Remaining undefeated throughout the season, the girls posted dual meet victories over Ottumwa, Lincoln, Mason City, Dowling, Urbandale, Ankeny, Ames, and East.

In the Christmas Invitational, featuring eight teams, there proved to be no match for the Roosevelt girls, as they swept the first three places in all seven events.

usual proceedings, the meet opened with a special presentation by Coach Earle Duggan in tribute of Jill Carey and Diane for their many achievements in gymnastics. Both have been members of two state champion teams and have been very successful in the field of gymnastics. After the presentations the girls overcame Ames by a score of 241.80-178.90.

Graduating only three members, Diane Sargent, Jill Carey, and Mary Eddy, the team should be alive for another try at the coveted state championship again next year.

Heading the team next year will be juniors Kim Carey, Kathy Keck, Jeanne Hudelson, Robyn Barnes, Anne Mabry, and Debbie Jepsen. Returning sophomores are Liz McDermott and Carol McDonald.

Also freshman Laurie Keck, Carole Sargent, Betsy Phillips, Sandra Kelley, and Rochelle Jensen.

Girl's basketball team goes to district tourney.

The Rider girls tied for second place in the Metro Conference with an 10-11 overall season record.

Coached by Mrs. Eula Cole, the girls went 8-4 in metro play. Their only losses were twice each to East and conference champion Hoover.

This was the first year metro girls were eligible to go into tournaments and Roosevelt did well. Their first sectional game was against East and the Riders won 68 to 32. Conference champion Hoover was the next opponent, and they defeated the Riders 81-77.

That loss put the girls in the consolation round against twice beaten Lincoln and the Riders won a third time 59 to 55. This victory classified the girls as sectional consolation winners and enabled them to move on to district.

The Riders first opponent was Bondurant-Farrar. The girls lost 85 to 70, eliminating Roosevelt from further tournament action.

This year's team was a young team consisting of one sophomore, eight juniors and six seniors. Co-captains were Carol McDaniel and Alisa Robbins.

Sophomore Janet McCracken led the forward court as high scorer with an average of 30.8 points a game. Her season high was 53 points which she made in the Hoover game.

Junior Carol Ruby and senior Carol McDaniel rounded out the forward court. Carol Ruby had an average of 19 points per game. She was high scorer in the Tech and Lincoln games with 26 and 30 points respectively.

Carol McDaniel helped Janet McCracken and Carol Ruby move the ball around and she set many good screens to set up another basket to boost the Rider's score.

The guard court of junior Becky Morgan and seniors Margo Hestbech and Alisa Robbins helped to secure many Rider victories.

Senior Becky Settlemyer added more height to the guard court. Becky Morgan was high rebounder on the team with an average of 6 rebounds a game. Margo Hestbech led the team with a total of 32 steals for the season.

Sophomore girls showing improvement on court.

Roosevelt's girls sophomore basketball team began the season rather disappointingly, but had improved noticeably by the end of the 1973-74 season.

Joan Silver, back from last year when she played as a freshman, teamed with Anne Koch and Kittie Harscher to form the forward court.

Janet Kerr, another returning freshman, worked in a tight man-to-man defense with Laurie Shade and Carolyn Ely.

Coached by Mrs. Nancy Swanson, co-captains for this years team were forward Tracy Kirkpatrick, the third returning freshman, and guard Laurie Shade.

High scorer for the girls was Joan Silver.

High scorer for the little Riders was Steve Johnson with an average of 11.6 points and Steve Whitney was high rebounder with 8.3 rebounds per game.

Many boys from the sophomore team were called up to the varsity team some time during the season.

Gary De Carlo and Armend Dyer went up to varsity after three games. Bob Baehr went up for the last three games and Steve Johnson and Steve Whitney suited up for the tournament game.

The little Riders improved as the season progressed and lost to conference champion North 53-57.

Coach Sears credits their improvement to the dedication, pride and team unity the boys experienced.

Coach Ron Adcock's basketball team opened the season with an exciting 58-54 victory over the Urbandale Jay Hawks in the Rider gym. Erich Lemke was high scorer with 17 points.

The excitement of winning was short-lived, however, as the cagers won only two more games throughout the season. They ended with a 3-1-6 record.

Tech managed a tie with Roosevelt in the Basketball Jamboree at Vets Auditorium the day after the Urbandale victory.

The Riders traveled to Ankeny next, only to be beaten 60-39.

Next was the Riders' second meeting with the Tech High Engineers. Tech came out on top with an action packed 67-64 victory over the Riders.

Ames handily disposed of Roosevelt, however, with a stinging 72-39 defeat.

East turned the tables on the Riders to defeat them 79-66 on December 7. The Riders held leads of 16-11 and 18-18 before losing the lead for the rest of the game. Erich Lemke led all scorers with 27 points.

Lemke's efforts earned him a spot in the Tribune Salute in the Des Moines Tribune.

Roosevelt lost their third straight league game to Dowling in a 57-54 contest.

Sophomore Gary DeCarlo led all scorers with 26 points. Jeff Edwards scored 14.

Valley outshot the Riders next in a game that ended at 83-75.

The highly rated Hoover Huskies crushed the Riders 92-36 in the Rider gym.

North handed the Riders an 81-65 defeat at Roosevelt, and then the Roughriders lost to East 67-61.

The Riders then rallied to a two game winning streak with Tech falling victim first as Roosevelt established revenge for their previous loss to the Engineers with a 67-46 victory.

Dowling was the next victim as the Riders upset the Maroons 65-63.

Riders try to stop East from scoring.

Erich Lemke shoots a free throw in an attempt to bolster the Rider score.

Valley halted the Rider's winning streak with a 55-51 heartbreaker.

Then, facing the most powerful three games of the season, the Riders met Lincoln, Marshalltown, and Hoover. Roosevelt lost to all three.

In their last regular season game the Riders fell to North 84-81 in a crucial overtime at North. Gary DeCarlo led Roosevelt with 24 point.

Then the Riders traveled to the first round of district competition only to have the season brought to an end with a lop-sided 82-55 loss to Tech.

Gary Decarlo was the year's highest scorer with a total of 243 points, and an average of 14.5 per game.

Erich Lemke was the team's highest rebounder bringing down a total of 141 rebounds, and average of seven per game.

With a season record of 3-12, the Roosevelt Junior Varsity team ended their 1973-74 season.

The purpose of the JV team is to develop basketball talent for the varsity team, and the boys showed a lot of talent.

Led by Paul Carlson with an average of 15 points per game, the JV team had an average season.

Art Lee led the team in rebounds with an average of 10 rebounds per game.

Joining these boys were centers Sheldon Ohringer and Steve Ingham, guards Bill Riley and Matt McCulloch, and forward Ken Liljedahl.

Ken Liljedahl puts up another two points for the Riders.

Tankers first in Metro tourney - seventh in state.

The Roosevelt tankers ended their 1973-74 season with a 7-2 record making them Metro champions for the second consecutive year.

In district competition the tankers placed third behind Hoover and Valley.

The Riders had two relay teams and 11 swimmers qualify for the state meet. Roosevelt went into the state meet with a pre-season ranking of third, but finished in seventh place. Only nine points separated Roosevelt from fourth place winners Muscatine.

The medley relay team, consisting of Dave Harvey, Jim Crispin, Al Koch and Dan McBride, took eighth place in the state meet.

Dave Harvey broke two records. He did the 100 yard backstroke in 58.91 and the 200 yard IM in 2:06.84.

John Stevenson also broke an existing record with a time of 5:11.47 in the 500 yard freestyle.

The free relay team broke a record with a time of 3:25.70. Jim Crispin, Tim Hoffman, Dan McBride, and Don Whitt swam on the free relay team.

TRHS second place - Lincoln Invitational

The wrestling team shows many smiling faces portraying pride as they receive their second place trophy in the Lincoln Invitational.

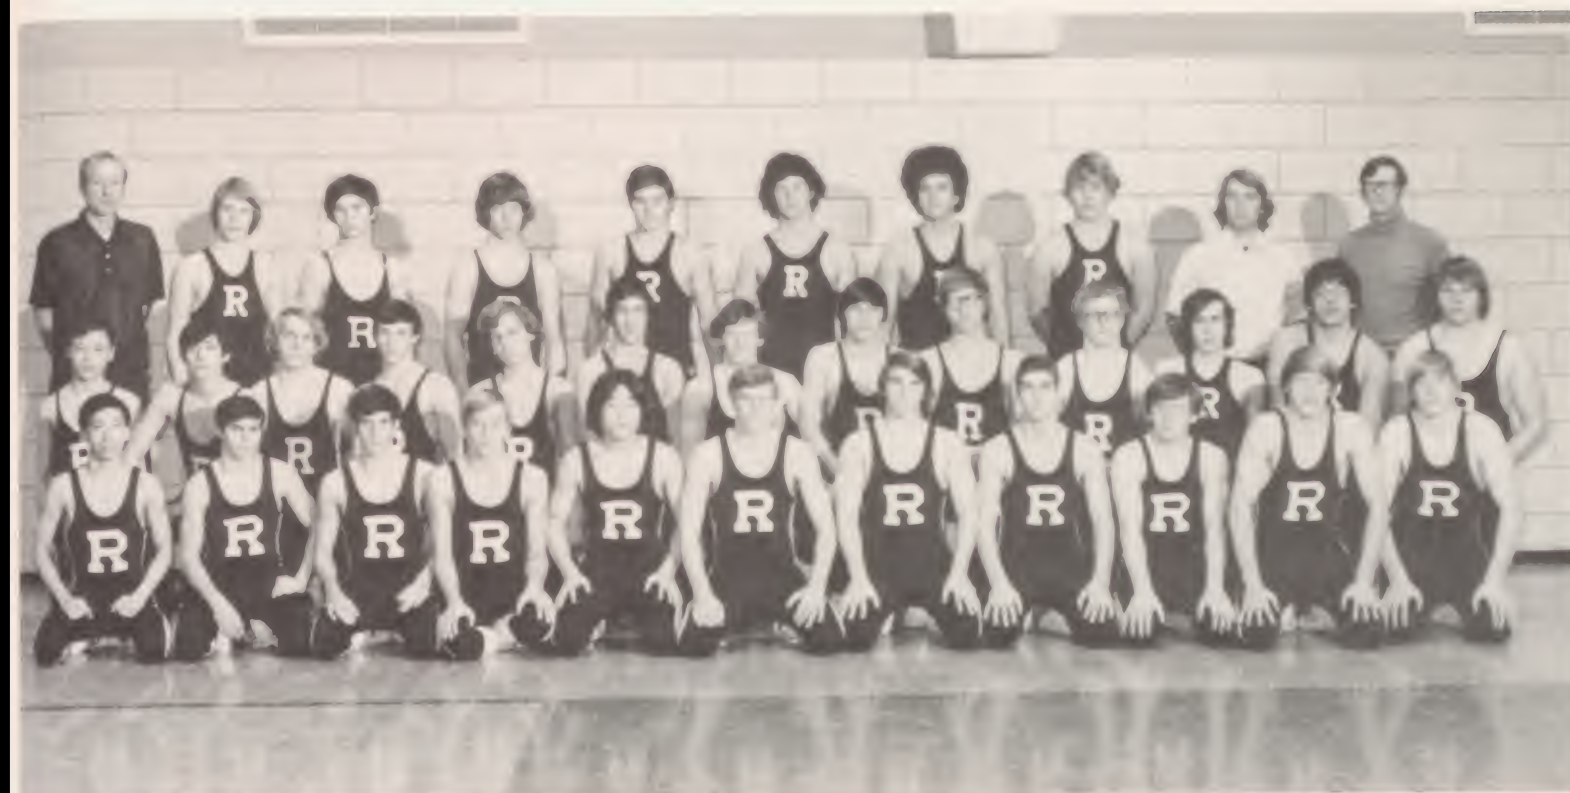

Senior Dave Ivis throws a deadly half on his Hoover opponent.

The Roosevelt Wrestling Team finished the 1973-74 season with a 4-7 dual meet record. Mike Burford was the Riders' only wrestler to go to the state meet where he placed fourth in the 145 pound weight class.

Urbandale clipped the wrestlers 36-22 in their first dual meet of the season. Individual winners for the Riders were Mike Sandler, Dave Ballard, Mike Burford, and Steve Mortensen.

Next the wrestlers rallied to defeat Indianola 31-22, with pins by Sandler, Steve Harlan, and John Hand. Hing Wong, Jeff Knutson, and Mike Burford won decisions.

East then handed the grapplers a 29-15 upset in the Rider gym. Sandler, Knutson, Ballard, and Burford won decisions. Dave Ivis tied.

The wrestlers then fell to Johnston 38-26. Sandler, Burford, Hand, and Randy Robbins registered pins to highlight the evening.

A tough Dowling handed the grapplers a crushing 53-5 defeat. The only Rider winner was Burford. Hand tied in the heavyweight match.

The wrestlers came back from the energy crisis's non-practice Christmas vacation to beat North 42-18. Ivis, Knutson, Burford, Hand, Mortensen, and Bruce Gates all pinned their opponents.

Hoover then stopped the wrestlers 33-18. Knutson, Ivis, Ballard, and Burford won while Gates tied his match.

Kuemper of Carroll took the grapplers 26-21 in Carroll. Dave Conn, Ivis, Ballard, Gates, Burford, and Hand won decisions.

A 48-8 loss to Valley was the Rider's last of the season. Knutson and Burford were the only winners.

Then, in what proved to be the closest match of the year, the wrestlers clipped Lincoln 26-25. A point being deducted from Lincoln's score due to bad conduct during the 138 pound match, a tie match turned out a Rider victory.

The season ended with a 33-21 routing of Tech. Sandler, Gates, Ballard, and Mortensen won, while Ted Brightman, Burford, and Hand scored pins.

In a great team effort the wrestlers took second place in the Lincoln Invitational. Burford was the Rider's only champion while Knutson, Ivis, Harned, and Hand finished second.

The Junior Varsity team, composed of sophomores and juniors, finished with a 5-6 dual meet record. Their most acknowledgeable achievement being their first place finish in the JV city tournament.

In dual meets the JV squad whipped Indianola, East, North, Lincoln, and Tech.

Girl's softball team has first season.

Row 1: Laurie Ward, Kathy Gill, Debbie Doud, Patty Ince, Kathy Green, Felica Hart. Row 2: Janet McCracken, Terri Tilton, Kathy Dennis, Carol Ruby, Janet Kerr, Debbie Landskron, Row 3: Mr. Robert Beilstein, Joan Libbey, Carol McDaniel, Carol McDonald, Debbie Easterly, Mary Gooding, Tracy Kirkpatrick, Erin Reifschneider.

The Roosevelt Girls' Softball team, coached by Mr. Robert Beilstein, ended their first season with a record of 7-10.

The girls lost their first game to Lincoln, 4-15, but bounced back with the help of a homerun by Janet McCracken to beat Tech, 6-5.

The next two games were hard-fought by the girls, but the work was not enough to help the Riders beat Dowling or East. They came back fast to beat North, 20-17, with a homerun by Carol McDaniel.

In the Saydel Tourney they faced both Dowling and Ballard. However, they lost both games.

Janet Kerr's double was not enough to down Lincoln. We lost, 8-9. Homeruns by Carol McDaniel and Terri Tilton helped the Riders beat Tech, 20-7.

Janet McCracken led the Riders with two homeruns to another victory over North, 11-3. The Rider girls fell to East 0-8, but Jo Anne Jeambey made one of the few hits of the game.

Homeruns by Carol McDonald, Carol Ruby and Carol McDaniel helped gain another victory over Tech.

The girls failed in their final attempt to beat Dowling, even with a homerun by Terri Tilton.

Janet Kerr's grand slam homerun made the victory over North possible.

Mr. Beilstein looks forward to next year's season with great expectations.

Cross country team gains experience.

Roosevelt's cross country team ended what Coach Irwin Kawarsky called a "rebuilding season" by again placing sixth in the city meet. Coach Kawarsky cited the team's lack of experience as their major problem. The predominantly sophomore squad tallied a 4-7 season record.

"I feel that we're about two years away from being possible Metro contenders," said Coach Kawarsky. "We have a good rebuilding program now, and if the team can recondition for next year we could have a great season."

Many of the harriers ran over 900 miles during the summer to condition for the 1973 season.

Seniors receiving letters were co-captains Marcus Anderson and Mike Higgins, Ron Bruning, and David Ivis. Sophomore Ron Goodwin was voted the year's most valuable runner.

The Riders succeeded in winning a frosh-soph meet against conference foes Tech, East, and Valley at Waterworks Park. Craig Canine placed first and Mark McGovern second for the Riders.

The frosh-soph team again rallied to place first at the Tom Karpan Invitational. Goodwin finished first with a time of 11:19 in the two-mile run. In varsity competition that day Bruning ran a 11:29 to lead the Riders with Jim Nielson coming in at 12:02.

Goodwin finished third with a time of 11:23, closely followed by Bruning at 11:31 in a two-mile run against state mile champion Lincoln. The Riders lost 14-21 to the Railsplitters.

Goodwin secured another first place finish for the Riders in a triangular meet against Hoover and East.

The Riders wrapped up their '73 season at the state meet in Grinnell but failed to place in the team competition.

A jovial cross country team sets out for their daily run.

Bloomburg, Lee to state meet for RHS

Roosevelt's Boys Track team, under the direction of head Coach Garland Seibert and assistants Dick Hewins and Don Sears finished the 1974 season with a seventh place conference finish and the individual honor of a state place by Mike Bloomburg. Bloomburg finished second in the hurdles.

Riders, Mike Bloomburg and Art Lee were the only tracksters to go to the state meet for Roosevelt, Lee in the 100 dash, and Bloomburg in the 120 high hurdles, 180 low hurdles, and the high jump.

At the Valley Relays, Bloomburg captured second place in the 120 high hurdles by breaking the previous record by one-tenth of a second.

On May 10 the competition for the state began as the boys headed into district competition at Urbandale. As a team the Riders finished sixth out of eight teams.

In the conference meet at Drake on May 16, the Riders finished seventh with Mike Bloomburg sweeping the 120 high hurdles and taking fifth in the 180 low hurdles. Lee was third in the 220 and fourth in the 100 dash. Mike Fox finished first in the long jump.

The coaching staff sighted youth and inexperience in the '74 team but they should look well in 1975 season.

Mary Jo Wengert places fourth in state

Mary Jo Wengert wins another 100 yd. dash.

The Roosevelt girl's track team ended its 1974 season with a fourth place conference finish. Five girls qualified for the state meet. They were: Mary Jo Wengert in the 100 and 220; Cathy Mabry in the mile; and the 440 relay team consisting of Carla Riddley, Kim McCracken, Barb Willoughby and Mary Jo Wengert.

Mary Jo Wengert was fourth in the 220; Cathy Mabry was sixth in the mile and the 440 relay team tied for seventh place in the state meet.

The team finished in sixth place at the district meet. Cathy Mabry captured a first place finish in the mile. Mary Jo Wengert took two third place finishes in both the 100 and the 220. Barb Willoughby was second in the 220 low hurdles and the 440 relay team placed second.

Senior Joan Libbey was this year's captain. Led by coach Gary Miller, the team consisting of 20 sophomores, 3 juniors, and 5 seniors had a fine season.

The team set many new records. Mary Jo Wengert set two conference records with a time of :11.9 in the 100 and :26.0 in the 220. The 440 relay time tied for a new conference record with a time of :51.8. At the Hawkette relays Mary Jo Wengert again set a record in the 100 with a time of :11.7. Barb Willoughby took :32.4 for the 220 low hurdles and set a record. The 440 relay team's new record time was at :52.8.

With a combination of 18 letterwinners and a young team, next year's team should have a fine season.

Boys' tennis team ends season with 8-1

The 1974 Boys' Tennis team ended their season with a 8-1 overall season record.

The Riders captured the team district title with both a singles and a doubles team entering state competition. Jim Baehr advanced in singles by whipping Indianola's Mark King 6-2 and 6-3 to capture the district singles crown.

The doubles teams of Kelley-Mellecker and Rosenberg-Purnell advanced to the state meet by meeting in the finals where Kelley-Mellecker came out on top.

At the state meet on May 24-25, Baehr beat Glen Gormezano of West Iowa City 6-4, 6-1 in the preliminary round but was beaten in the quarter finals in a close match with Doug Browne of North Sioux City.

The doubles teams of Kelley-Mellecker, and Rosenberg-Purnell also lost in the quarter finals.

Coach Anderson looks to be sporting a powerful squad for years to come as none of the 1974 squad members were lost to graduation.

For the second year in a row the girls tennis team captured the first place district title.

The doubles team of Joy Rabinowitz and Sandy Kelley took a first place finish having beaten their teammates Janie Brenton and Lydia Matthews who took second place.

In the state meet, the doubles team of Janie Brenton and Lydia Matthews advanced to the top 16 but then lost in the first round of play.

But the team of Joy Rabinowtz and Sandy Kelley proceeded to take second place in the doubles category.

Coached by Mr. Tom Reed the girls took the metro championship with a 7-0 record.

The girls were undefeated in season play with a 9-0 record.

Team captain was Becky Seaman who was beaten in the first round of singles play at the district tournament.

All members of the team lettered.

The 1974 Roosevelt girl's golf team had a good season. Coached by Mr. Don Prior the girls ended the season with a 5-2 record.

Sophomore Kittie Harscher was the medalist in every meet but one this year.

This year's team captain was senior Nancy Nicholas.

The team took second place in the sectional tournament with a team score of 418. Players for Roosevelt were: Diane Fredricks, Candy Porter, Nancy Nicholas, Kittie Harscher, and Sandy Willett. The team then proceeded to a fifth place finish in the district meet with a score of 458.

With few seniors graduating the majority of the team will return next year for another good season.

Jim Rasley hits hole-in-one in North meet

Roosevelt Boys Golf team headed by Coach Don Prior, wrapped up a 4-3 metro record, 5-4 overall, to bring the 1974 season to an end.

The hero of the North meet was Jim Rasley. On the Par 3, 185-yard eighth hole at Waveland, Rasley hit a fivewood off the tee. The ball landed at the front of the green, then bounced up and hit the top of the flag stick and dropped straight into the cup.

On May 10 the sectional competition began. Rasley was the only Rider to advance to the district Meet by firing a 40 in the sectionals.

Rasley therefore went on to district play where he swung 83 times in the medalist competition and went on to finish fourth in the state meet.

Winning baseball team works together.

Wolf, Mr. Ron Adcock, Jim Noyce, Joe Tilton, Denny Sears, Brett Nuckolls, Nick Strickler, Don Elliott.

The Roosevelt baseball team, coached by Mr. Ron Adcock, finished one of the top eight teams in the state this year. Mr. Adcock commented that the team was one of the finest he has ever coached at Roosevelt.

"Although we didn't have any outstanding individual players this year, we worked together as a whole to come up with a winning ball team," commented Coach Adcock.

Denny Sears and Joe Tilton were voted by the team as the most valuable players of the season. They received the John Schlamp Memorial Award.

Leading the Roughriders at bat was Jim Wengert, batting .351. Tilton closely followed, batting .346 for the season.

Led by team captains Sears and Tom Economos, the batmen placed fourth in the Metro Tournament. They also captured the District Tournament title by defeating Southeast Polk, Oskaloosa, and East High Schools.

The Riders then advanced to sub-state finals where they defeated a tough Urbandale team 5-0. They lost, however, to Thomas Jefferson of Council Bluffs in the final game of the sub-state tournament.

All-Metro team players representing Roosevelt were Economos at second base and Sears at first base. Tilton, Terry Fried, and Craig Schroeder received honorable mention.

The Riders opened their metro season with a 5-3 loss to Hoover. Three errors then helped conference foe North to an 8-6 victory over Roosevelt.

The Riders retaliated against the dual loss to Hoover and North by dumping the Huskies, 3-1, and the Polar Bears, 6-3, later in the season.

In the final conference game of the season against Lincoln, Fried struck out 15 of the Railsplitters. The Riders lost, however, after ten innings of play.

Terry Fried prepares to throw another strike for the Riders.

Kevin Loyet rounds third base as he heads for home and another run for the Riders.

Joe Tilton pounds out another hit for the Riders.

All the secrets of the universe

A turning point in our history

The decade of the 70's may well go down in history as a turning point in the lifestyle of this country.

A time when man suddenly awoke from a lifestyle of increasing, and many times wasteful, energy consumption. And when he awoke to decreasing fuel and energy supplies, he took a positive step and entered the age of energy conservation.

It will be noted as a time when it became as important to use existing energy supplies wisely, as to find and develop new and alternate sources.

That's why at Iowa Power, we think practicing energy conservation, like insulating your house well, is so important.

Important because we don't think it makes sense for any of us to use or pay for more energy than we really need.

At Iowa Power, it's our responsibility to provide adequate supplies of energy. It's your responsibility not to waste any of it.

Grand View College ...the personal college.

Grand View College—Education with a personal point of view.
That means we see the person as the center of our purpose.

For more than three-quarters of a century we've been convinced that education doesn't all come from textbooks and classrooms. Meaningful education also comes from learning about yourself, learning about values to serve you a lifetime.

A Grand View education means a dedicated faculty who share a common commitment to help each student develop through the entire spectrum of mind, body, and spirit.

If you're looking for the personal dimension in higher education, make Grand

YOUNKERS

SATISFACTION ALWAYS

As part of Younkers firm belief in the young people of today, a program is offered each year for the Des Moines area schools . . . TEEN BOARD for junior and senior girls, and ADVISORY BOARD for junior and senior boys. These young people, selected to represent their schools, are chosen for leadership qualities, high scholastic standings, personal recommendations from school administrators and evaluation from members of the retiring boards, plus their interest and ability in retail and fashion. They participate in special fashion shows during the year, give talks in their schools and to other groups on good grooming, publish a monthly newsletter and work in various junior departments each Saturday. Younkers salutes the representatives from ROOSEVELT HIGH SCHOOL for a job very well done.

The 1974 edition of the Roosevelt Roundup was published by Walsworth Publishing Company in Marceline, Missouri.

The book has 216 pages using matte paper with copy in 10 point Olympia, cutlines in 8 point Olimpia, and headlines in 30 point Melior type.

A three column layout was used with each column being two and one half inches wide.

Special effect were used on pages 8/9, 56/57, 88/89, 120/121, 144/145, and 186/187. The special effects consisted of 1/8" black lining around pictures and Mezzotint was used on one picture on each of these pages. No color was used.

The cover was off-white lines printed with Navy Blue, Glo-tone, line artwork. The endsheets were Radiant blue.

Mr. Paul Magnin was our Walsworth representative without whom this book could not have been completed.

Faye Brown and Marty Dutch organize their papers, and thoughts, before class starts.

Daisy Hoyt munches on an apple for lunch, while Linda Miller enjoys "people watching."

Mr. Holcomb takes his classes to the library for research.

We May Never Pass This Way Again

Life—so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love—like the Autumn sun
Should be dying, but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin'
And all the secrets of the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go
And take us up always up

We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again

Dreams—so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away
Peace—like the silent dove
Should be flyin' but it's only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open seas
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take us up—always up

We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again

So I wanna laugh while the laughin' is easy
I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile
I may never pass this way again
That's why I want it with you
'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than A friend
Like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end
I may never pass this way again
That's why I want it with you, baby

We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
